PROFILE

Performer, Freelance Translator and Communications Manager

I graduated from the Department of English Language and Literature at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, where I participated in a theatrical workshop aimed at teaching foreign languages through theatrical education, the knowledge of which I used in my internship in a primary school. After completing my academic studies, I began acting lessons at the Theatre Workshop of T Theatre, and at Parsifal Laboratory of Theatre, in Thessaloniki. I have participated in professional acting seminars with Revekka Tsiligaridou, Dimitris Lalos, Aris Biniaris, Dimitris Imellos, Simos Kakalas, Dimitris Karantzas, Akillas Karazisis, Martha Frintzila, Przemyslaw Blaszczak and others. Also, I took part in the 7th ATTICA School of Ancient Drama and at the ten days European, theatrical project "In the Light of Philosophers" in Turkey. At the same time, I have participated in presentations and performances by the Theatre Department of the School of Fine Arts (AUPh) and in short films and video clips, independently produced and in collaboration with the Film Department of the School of Fine Arts (AUPh). I am a professional translator between english and greek and an artistic photographer. Furthermore, I am a founding member and communications manager of the LibrArt Performing Arts Ensemble and a member of the Experimental Theatre Ensemble Faltsoi ("From the 5th verse already out of tune").
