I've been on the President's and Dean's list presently at Medical Assistance student at "Fortis College" I've done work beyond the call of duty as a Certified nurse assistant I also volunteer in the community I help feed the homeless and volunteer at art and film festivals

I am a Hair Replacement Specialist, had training at "TDI" Pretty Slick bonding system, in Sacramento Ca. And I have my own seeing techniques, I've had some TV exposure where I've done a makeover on a lady in the audience which consists of hair and makeup, dressed her in fashion's from "Big Country Women's Fashions" which was televised on the news reel. I have done make up application and a hair model for a whole fashion show for "Valance's Hair Salon" where I had worked which aired on a cable channel all in St. Louis Mo. I was a Cosmetologist from 1978 to 2005 or my license has expired and my CNA certification has expired as well that's why I am a medical assistant student now I'm looking for a externship program and then employment I will be a good asset to the company because of my knowledge of hair replacement and the medical field.
