

LA'TRISA HOWARD CAESAR

Writer/Creator

PROFILE

La'Trisa Howard Caesar is a breakthrough creative launching onto the scene with her first unscripted competition program.

In her free time, La'Trisa writes children's short stories, and dramatic novels. Her most recent novel, "The Lessons Miss Sarah Grewed", has been submitted for a writing fellowship.

La'Trisa's love and passion for writing and unscripted programming has inspired her to create more competition programs.

CONTACT

PHONE:
336-850-0219

WEBSITE:
Instagram: @lhcaesar

EMAIL:
lh.caesar@gmail.com

HOBBIES

Reading
Writing
Watching Unscripted Programs
Singing

EDUCATION

---

University of Phoenix

11/2005 – 04/2008

Graduated with a 3.46. Earned a Master's in Business Administration with a minor in Healthcare Management

Winston-Salem State University

08/1996 – 05/1999

Bachelors in Psychology with a minor in Sociology

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

The Lessons Miss Sarah Grewed - Book

A drama set in the deep south chronicling the lives of a woman named Sarah is living her life, while peacefully tending her garden until one night, her past knocked at her door...Lizzy.

Unscripted Competition Program – WGAE Registered

07/2022

An exciting unscripted competition program of 12-15 contestants from all of the US competing for bragging rights and monetary prize. Each contestant will compete in various challenges with curve balls and immunity on the line. Only one can come out on top...who will it be?

Unscripted Competition Program - Developing

7/2022

A challenging competition program pushing contestants from all over the US to prove they have what it takes to be on top! Each contestant will participate in various challenges to prove they have what it takes to be the best of the best. The industry is waiting...