ABOUT ME

Hey, it's Mae! I'm a 22 year old Filipina currently based in Seattle, WA. I love creating authentic and fun beauty and skincare content. Some of which include, tutorials, reviews, hauls, and GRWMs. My goal is to be a reliable source for my audience with putting out tips and tricks that work in my every day life. I feel there's always something new to learn with beauty or skincare, and what better way to do that than to push out engaging content based off of my experiences! I would love to work with brands to create captivating content!
