

McKenzie Cochran

(509) 855-3683

mckenzielcochran@gmail.com

Flight Time

Total Flight Time: 268.7 Multiengine: 20.6 Instrument: 75.4
Night: 17.6

Piper Archer III (PA-28-181) Piper Seminole (PA-44-180)

Certificates

Commercial Pilot Airplane Single & Multiengine Land; Instrument Airplane.
Flight Instructor Airplane Single Engine; Instrument Airplane.
First Class Medical

Employment

McGee Air Services, Seattle, WA - Operations Supervisor
November 2020 - October 2021

Oversee the safe loading and unloading of Alaska Airlines flights (cargo and passenger baggage). Audit crews on arrivals, departures, and safety procedures (including weight distribution), marshalling aircraft, and assisting disabled passengers.

Quantem Aviation Services, Portland, OR - Lead Ramp Agent
July 2019 - April 2020

Supervise and coordinate the loading and unloading of UPS cargo jets and Ameriflight feeder aircraft. Instruct strict safety procedures by marshalling aircraft and setting up aircraft stalls. Operation of cargo loader, tug, and belt loader machinery. Complete required paperwork at end of operations.

EDUCATION

Coast Flight Training, San Diego, CA - American Airlines Cadet Academy
November 2021 - July 6, 2023

Spin training endorsed. Extensive studies in aircraft systems (Piper PA 181 III /G, PA-44-180), weather, privileges and limitations, maneuvers, regulations, ATC communications, emergency procedures, aeronautical decision making, and cross-country flight planning.

Washington State University, Pullman, WA — Bachelor of Arts in Music Performance

August 2012 - May 2017

Minors in Business Entrepreneurship and Women's Studies. Met performance deadlines and instructed younger students on proper technique and procedure.

References Available Upon Request

SKILLS

Conflict Resolution

Operational planning

Time management

Crew Resource Management

FAR Part 91 Operations

Multi-tasking and Organization

Aeronautical Decision Making

Situational Adaptation

Airport Ramp Supervisory Duties (Cargo and Passenger)