Hello There,

My name is Zachary Newcott and I am reaching out to apply for the position of AI Training for Sports, Travel & Transportation and Poetry Writer at Remo.

I am an experienced writer and journalist with a passion for crafting fun, engaging stories. Throughout my seven years working at a Gannet affiliate newspaper I wore many different hats including social media manager, reporter, humorist, video journalist and editor. As an interviewer with both the newspaper and as a freelance correspondent with AARP I was able to bring exclusive interviews with actors and musicians about upcoming movies and events to our audience as well as highlighting luxury travel and dining locations of interest.

I have extensive experience writing for SEO and web optimization, as well as writing clear, compelling copy on a wide variety of topics. As an energetic, attentive individual, I am confident in my ability to work with a diverse team as well as individually to bring awesome, brand spanning new content to this exciting platform.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

All the best,

Zack Newcott
