

SADIE LEVY

Teacher, Facilitator, Anti-Racist Organizer

sadie.n.a.levy@gmail.com

413.588.7257

460 Prospect Place Apt 3
Brooklyn, NY 11238

EDUCATION

M.A. in Elementary Education

Clark University | Worcester, MA | May 2019

B.A. in International Development and Social Change, focus on Community Health (minor, Spanish)

Clark University | Worcester, MA | May 2018

SIT Nicaragua and Cuba: Youth, Literacy and Media

Nicaragua and Cuba | January to June 2016

LEADERSHIP IN SOCIAL JUSTICE

Member of LGBTQ+ Working Group at Sanctuary for Families | February 2020 to September 2021

Member on Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Team at Sanctuary for Families | February 2020 to Sep 2021

Organizer with Jews for Racial and Economic Justice | NYC, NY | February 2020 to June 2020

Organizer with People's Power Assembly | NYC, NY | October 2019 to June 2020

Member of President's Diversity Advisory Council | November 2016 to April 2018

Founder of Floetic Fridays | Worcester, MA | 2016 to 2019

Founding member of Student Committee for Unlearning Racism | Worcester, MA | January 2017 to November 2017

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

I am a fluent Spanish speaker, writer, and reader. I am experienced using Google Classroom and FlipGrid, as well as all Microsoft Add-Ons.

I am an experienced lesson planner and facilitator.

I am a musician, dancer, and overall artist!

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Grade 1 Gifted and Talented Classroom Teacher

Public School 316 Elijah Straud Elementary | Brooklyn, NY | January - June 2023

- Taught Grade 1 Gifted and Talented Classroom with supervision from co-teacher
- Gifted and Talented class split half way through the year and I taught mirror lessons to head teacher January - June 2023

Elementary School Spanish Teacher K-5

Public School 316 Elijah Straud Elementary | Brooklyn, NY | Oct 2021- current

- Teach all students K - 5th grade weekly Spanish lessons (650 students).
- Fulfill International Baccalaureate curriculum with all grades.
- Plan scaffolded lessons for all grade levels. Each grade level has 3 to 4 classes, each with specialized needs. Teach classes of "general education," "gifted and talented," and "NEST classrooms" (high functioning students on the spectrum).

Second Grade Teacher

Jacob Hiatt Magnet School | Worcester, MA | August 2018 - June 2019

- Taught 2nd grade class of 20 students, over 50% were English Language Learners. Student taught for part of year and then taught as Lead Teacher when mentor teacher left in April
- Taught phonics, reading, writing, math, science, social studies, history, and used performing arts in classroom.

RELEVANT WORK

Facilitator and Guide for Global Works

Global Works | Puerto Rico and Louisiana | Various dates 2022 -2023

Facilitated and coordinated 10 - 14 day long trips for high school students in Puerto Rico and the US American South. Followed agendas created by director, Daily communication with all people and organizations involved - museums, service work sites, restaurants, accommodations, transportation, health and wellness of students. In Spanish and English.

Full Spectrum Doula

Ancient Song Doula Services, Boomer, and Freelance | NYC, NY | March 2021 to present

Provide perinatal services to pregnant people birthing in hospitals, birthing centers, and home. Many clients are free or low cost. Guide clients through their birth choices, effective labor positions for pain management, emotional stressors and postpartum plans.

Bilingual Case Manager and Avodah Corps Member

Sanctuary For Families | NYC, NY | August 2019 to present

Worked on a small team of the Anti-Trafficking Initiative as a Case Manager for 20-25 clients, all survivors of sex and labor trafficking. Assisted in getting clients access to food, safety, education, translation needs, legal services, public benefits advocacy, and emotional support.

Volunteer with Girls' Choice

YWCA | Worcester, MA | September 2015 to January 2016

Volunteered with an all-girls after-school college-preparatory program. Supported teens with their homework and college applications, and emotionally navigate the transition from HS to college.