

To Whom it May Concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend to your attention one of my former students -- Ms. Julie Fackrell.

I have known Julie for three years, and in that time I have found her to be highly intelligent, talented, ambitious and resourceful in the very best sense of those words.

She is a solid young student and artist who will likely excel in any discipline into which she ventures. While Julie is relatively new to the acting profession, I have observed a steady growth in her performance technique and I believe that she will continue to grow as an actor. She is equally adept at comedic and dramatic parts, and she shows potential as a character actor.

Perhaps the most significant compliment that I can pay Julie is that she is a true student of the theatre; desperate to learn anything and everything she can about all things. In this regard, she has become a welcomed leader in our department. Additionally, her colleagues have been enthusiastic toward her work with them, and have benefited greatly from their association with her.

Julie Fackrell will prove a strong asset to any agency with which she may align herself. I recommend her highly and with no reservations of any kind. Please grant her serious consideration for an audition/interview with your agency. If you have specific questions about her work with me, please feel free to call me at (972) 881-5679, or email bbaker@ccccd.edu.
