INTERNSHIP COVER LETTER

RE:An application for a job.

I am humbly writing to apply for a job in your organization.I have always admired working in your organization because of the good content and services you offer. My academic accomplishments meet the necessary requirements. I am seeking a challenging but rewarding attachment, which is why I was drawn to this exciting opportunity.

As a senior Journalism student at the Kenya Institute of Mass Communication, I have acquired skills necessary in journalism which I would like to use to impact positively on your organization.

Thank you for taking the time to review my application and I look forward to hearing from you to further discuss my qualifications .Looking forward to working with you.

Yours faithfully,
Cynthia Masibo.
