Dear Mrs Salvans

As an agent you may literally go through thousand of cover letters and resume every day, and most of the time you wind most of these letters in the trash can. However, before you consider mine among those, I would like to tell you unlike most of the stars, I have taken this career seriously. I have converted this profession into my work ethic.

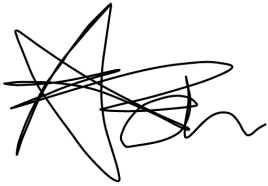

Being a drama student in my college and school days, I have taken acting to be a craft and profession that means a lot to me rather than giving me fame and money.

I would appreciate if you see my resume wherein I have mentioned my experience and knowledge. If you watched my reel you can see how seriously I have taken this profession. Please do call me at (insert contact details). I look forward to meet you soon.

Thanks and Regards,

Your name: Kimberly Manga
