OBJECTIVE

I have 5 years in catering and hospitality, learning skills such as 3 plate hold, bartending/cocktails service, customer service and professional mingling, taking orders, working long hours as well as forward thinking/ initiative.

I am well versed with graphic design/social media management/ videography and Drone flying as well as photography. These have taught me skills such as an eye for detail, taking care of equipment, organising projects and having complete creative direction, strong imagination and creativity. I'm skilled with social media management where I know how to schedule upcoming posts, craft appropriate comments, following a client's brief, going above and beyond.

i have a strong passion for the creative field, I have experience in graphic design where I would used the Adobe creative sweet. I worked closely with Illustrator, Photoshop and Lightroom. I completed an internship in 2022 at ID collective in st Kilda where I worked with the social media management and graphic design team..

il have 15 years farming experience, working closely with machinery such as tractors, trucks, quad bikes, 4X4 buggies, and motorbikes. I have also learnt to maintain these vehicles.

I have experience with power tools, ranging from Grinders, Electric saws, welding machines(MIG and stick), Electric Sanders, Drills etc. I have competency with painting, washing down facilities and machinery as well as detailing.

PROFILE

I take pride in my people skills, work ethic and presentation. I really enjoy working with people and I'm not afraid of hard work. I have a keen and practical eye for detail and a good ability to spontaneously solve practical problems and have the ability to assess and initiate things independently.

I am organised and have lived closely with my peers. I attended boarding school for 6 years and learned to live closely with others, be respectful and organised. I adapt easily to new environments.

I am tidy and clean. I am happy to try my hand at anything that is required.

I have known Will since he was a child and also ha the pleasure of employing him at my PR & Communications agency before he went overseas. All I can say is that he is the sort of person who is an asset in any workplace - professional, conscientious, a fantastic communicator, well-liked and respected by his peers and his managers alike. He is also very creative, a good self starter, imbued with a lot of common-sense initiative. He is also possessed of a cheery sunny personality and definitely not afraid of hard work. He would make a great contributions to any team but his temperament and smarts would especially well-suited to working as part of a super yacht crew.
