EDUCATION & TRAINING

Ball State University: B.A. in Theatre Creation/Theatrical Studies (which included a multitude of acting courses, BA in Telecommunications (Video Production). Took acting courses under acclaimed character actor Peter Spellos in 2020.

SPECIAL SKILLS

Is an experienced vocalist (bari/tenor range) and has some dance experience (specifically with his role in the 2021 Footlite production Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat), and is a former martial artist (brown belt in Tae Kwon Do) with the requisite flexibility to get back into fight choreography as needed with very little difficult training. Works well with most other individuals, has an ear for accents, and takes directions as needed with utmost precision. Previously employed as a character performer for Happily Ever After Productions in Indianapolis, where he typically played Spider-Man, the Flash, or Kristoff for various family events. Has VO experience through his time working as an on-air Announcer/Producer at Indiana Public Radio (an NPR neighbor station, for which his work won him the 2022 Al Rent Public Media Student Employee Award) and through acting work on student and professional films. Previously worked as a Gallery Interpreter/Actor at The Children's Museum of Indianapolis for various Special Exhibit programming, as well as a performer at The Alice Cocktail Experience in Indianapolis during its late 2022/early 2023 run.
