My name Jinyree Moore I'm a local in CT that's been performing standup and music; at the funny bone comedy club and the 50 Fitch the Hungry Tiger and Elbow Room respectively. I wish to gain another platform behind the camera no matter the role. Any experience for me would be integral to my growth as an entertainer. I'm now I'm characteristic and I put a great deal of time in to understand my character while preparing for a role. Doing so ensures that I can properly connect to the story and I always ask questions to make sure I execute the best possible performance I can bring.
