

Kevin M. Newton

Summary: I began acting on stage when I was 3 years old. In sum, I have performed in over 20 live shows. Although it has been years since I practiced the craft formally, my time spent teaching at the university and giving presentations of research findings has acted as proxy practice for my acting abilities. I am very motivated to show the industry what I can offer.

**From 2008-2015 I dedicated myself to my education. During this time I earned four college degrees while maintaining a 3.97 GPA and taught three separate classes. The degrees were B.A. in psychology, B.A. in philosophy, M.S. in psychology, and M.A. in applied anthropology. I am ready to leverage my real world experience and revisit my acting career.
