Former Signals Intelligence Analyst with 6 years military experience. Consistently ranking amongst top peers in terms of performance and output, and continuing this trend in the civilian world. I am fast paced, very flexible, and do not stop until the project is complete. I have spent a substantial amount of time in both intern and leadership positions. With my adaptability, I can be a positive impact in any organization. With my experience and talent, I am hoping to advance my career into the film industry.
