

Hey! Im Harper Morey, a 12 year old female from minnesota, US. soon to turn thirteen though! I love disney movies, especially the princess ones, im in the plays at my school (BTW, im in 7th grade) the most recent musical we have is the addams family JR one, my role is the understudy for wednesday. I love to sing. Its one of my favorite things to do.

I have done almost every sport there is for little kids, but the one that caught my attention the most, was competitive swimming for the richfield highschool girls team. Ive done ballet, and gymnastics, i wasnt very good, but i still have a few tricks up my sleeve ;)

My goal here is just to get to know everyone here...!

I have also been on the honors role for my school all years, good grades all that, even got a place for my swim team
