PROFILE

Connecticut Artist and Vocalist Chris Kardiac hit the ground running with his unorthodox style of flow and melodies. Kardi has received positive critiques by the likes of Spechouse. The Author and creator of Rapzilla Chad Horton. God's house of HipHop's own Emcee Nice. Thanks to his transparent style of music, he melodic trill. His uncommon pattern of flow, Chris Kardiac is able to operate in a lane of his own. Chris is the CEO of ViZual Hights Inc, the same label that has produced his music since 2016. Currently, Chris is working as both artist and CEO, with duties ranging from A&R to marketing, and administration in collaboration with producer Chris Val and Artist QuesThorough. Chris Kardiac is one of the top hip-hop artists to watch for. The rapper entrepreneur was born and raised in the small town of Torrington, Connecticut. His early musical influences ranged from Fabolous to Ja Rule Busta Rhymes, Drake, and others. In his EPK Chris, proclaims that Jesus helped him find his voice. "Jesus is the answer to why I want to write all these songs." Chris first got into music at age 12. A friend randomly called him and said "Let's be rappers." It was one of his childhood friends that ignited his passion for music. The inspirational artist grew up listening to Fabulous and admired his lyrical wits and composition. He also admired the energetic live performances of Busta Rhymes and the all-rounded musical prowess of Drake.
