SOFIA DANIEL

MODEL & ACTRESS

DESCRIPTION

I am completing my eighth grade year in middle school and have a passion for modeling and a growing interest in acting. In my spare time, I enjoy singing and playing guitar. I am also venturing into the world of tennis, and excited to refine my skills on the court. Additionally, I spend time reading mystery novels and express my creativity through drawing and collaging in my sketchbook.

RECENT ENDEAVORS

I am actively pursuing opportunities in both modeling and acting. I regularly perform live at Madlife Stage & Studios in Woodstock, Georgia, where I participate in both open mic nights and paid events. I have been showcasing my talents there for almost two years now. Please see below for a sample song from my recent three-song set.
