James and The Giant Peach- Theatre II class

My theatre II class did a production of James and the Giant Peach last semester, and I played the main Character James

March 2023

My junior year I was in the IB theater (HL) class at my school. One of our requirements for the class was to create a collaborative piece, involving six members of the class, no longer than 10 minutes, and be about a historical event. I contributed to the direction of the piece, though I was assisting as it was not my piece. I played the lead, a young boy named Archie, in my classmate's student produced show about the Emu wars in Australia.

Summer 2023

I worked as a production assistant and executive producer on a student produced uncredited short film
