I am a college student-athlete that is resilient, hardworking, and compassionate. In my free time I pursue my hobbies of music and art, expanding my creativity. I love being part of a team and actively contributing to its success. I am good at coming up with quick solutions to problems and are adaptable to any kind of situation. I am majoring in Media and Entertainment and hope to become a filmmaker and work to create new movies. What interest me in a job is the ability to prove that I can maintain the expected standards that are given while giving high quality effort in a task.
