

ZARIA CANNON

CONTACT

✉ zcannon@umass.edu

📍 NY 11217

SKILLS

- Stage Assistance
- Stage Management
- Adobe Premiere Pro
- Adobe Photoshop
- Canva

CAREER OBJECTIVES

An organized and hard-working individual eager to enhance my directing and filmmaking skills through an entry-level position. I can contribute to the workplace with my ability to be detailed-oriented as well as my excellent communication skills.

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am skilled in my content editing abilities using Adobe Premiere Pro and Photoshop. I have a background in film lighting and camera operations. I stay on top of demands in fast-paced environments and am always willing to take on any task. I also am able to deliver high-quality work under tight deadlines.

EXPERIENCE

July 2022- August 2022

Stagehand

Adelphi University, NY

- Collaborated with stagehands to ensure smooth operations of load-in and load-out
- Worked cooperatively with crew members from different departments
- Maintained cleanliness of backstage areas before and after shows.
- Assisted talent before, during, and after shows.
- Was the point of contact on headset from the stage manager to the talent and crew backstage.

July 2020- July 2020

Intern

NAKED ANGEL w/ The New School, NY

- Helped program participants in day-to-day assignments.
- Assisted in preparing information and research material for daily projects.

EDUCATION

2020-Present

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Theater and Communication

University of Massachusetts Amherst, MA

Extracurricular Activities

- Member of the UMass Theatre Guild
- Studied abroad for three months at the Istituto Lorenzo de' Medici in Florence, Italy

June 2020

Associates in Arts (A.A.)

Bard High School Early College, NY