ACCOMPLISHMENTS

I went to a audition for a modeling school and the name of it was John Casablancas in charlotte NC and I made it, But I had to pay every time I went. I couldn't afford it no more at the time so I ended up quitting that school and then I found another modeling school In Columbia Sc and the name of this one was DeAbreu Modeling & Acting. I ended up going to their audition and they fell in love with me the first day I walked through the door so they ended up giving me a free scholarship and I ended up graduating from DeAbreu Modeling & Acting  And I did learn some things in that school..
