As a wardrobe stylist, my role goes beyond selecting clothes. I am a storyteller translating characters' personalities and the director's vision into tangible expressions. With a keen eye for detail and a deep understanding of fashion trends and historical styles, I curate wardrobes that not only enhance the visual appeal of the production but also breathe life into characters. I thrive on collaboration, seamlessly working with directors, producers, and actors to ensure cohesive and impactful visual narrative.

With over 8 years in the film industry, I have worked as a wardrobe assistant, costumer and department head for companies like BET and Fox 5. From visualize concepts for directors to facilitating tailoring, I've seen the garment through from production to the big screen!
