ABOUT ME

Ever since Liv was born she has had an affinity for acting and theater. From her first love of muppet Murray on Sesame Street to her Michael Jackson, David Bowie, and Wednesday Addams obsessions, she has been attracted to fantastically unique art that spreads joy.

Liv has been in acting classes since she was 3 years old and landed her first youth theater role the day after her 6th birthday. She has since been in 12 community theater productions.

Liv is said to have an old soul, empathetic, and high-energy, coupled with not much fear of the spotlight which is truly a unique combination. Her look is very versatile and she has played both boy and girl parts with pride. Liv loves engaging with the people around her and learning from her teachers and peers. She seems to always be on and ready for fun!
