

Ramone Williams

Cover Letter

My name is Ramone Williams. I was born and raised in Flint, Michigan and currently reside in Washtenaw County in Michigan. I am an actor who has been a part of 10 theater performances over the last 7 years. My acting reel highlights several short and student films as well as commercials. I also have experience with voiceover work and welcome an opportunity to tell stories through character and self work. I am seeking representation from an agency to further my career in acting. I am also seeking opportunities to grow my skill set with productions that believe in me and will do everything possible for me to succeed.

I've been in several short and student films in my career, and I am willing to travel for a big opportunity. I'd designate myself as complementary to other actors with a strength in physical acting and someone who can portray contrasting emotions in a scene. I have a sense of humor and a presence that takes center stage in a scene.. I have a wide age range that I can portray, having been asked to play anything from 20-50 years old.

Thank you for your consideration.
