

CURRICULUM VITAE

María Marta PEPÉ MENDICUTE

Age: 73 yo.

Resident: San Marcos Sierras, Córdoba, Argentina

e-mail: laspirkitas@gmail.com

United Nations Certificate for English and French Languages

Social Psychologist (post title in Pathology of Human Bonds)

1973-76: United Nations Development Program. Translation of program documents.
Translation of reports by international experts. Translator at FAO Office Buenos Aires.
Member of the translation pool at UNDP Caracas, Venezuela.

1976-80: Head of the Translations Department at Embassy of India, Buenos Aires.

1980-85: Technical Director at Interlingua Barcelona (translation company with headquarters at UK). Specific tasks: translation, edition, revision.

1986 on: Free lance translator for several publishing companies and private clients. Most usual topics: literary, journalistic, scientific, medical.

Long term special projects:

- Historical novels related to Hyperborean Gnosis (El Walhalla Publishing and others).
- Professional team in German New Medicine: Works by Dr. Hamer, papers by his colleagues and followers, support in patient/professional communications on line.
- Papers, research documentation, etc. related to contents and safety condition for vaccines, their side effects, etc.

1992 on: Creation and overall management of a small publishing house dedicated to rescuing materials not available in commercial bookstores, related to Hyperborean Gnosis, historical novels, magical realism novels; including translation of materials, editing and final editorial supervision.

Other activities:

- Non formal studies of runology. Author of a small book on history of runes comparing the different futharks.
- Plastic Arts: painting, design, artistic screen printing. Extensive career as a visual artist including individual and group exhibitions in Argentina, Spain and France, with several international awards.
- Music: Singer, guitar and charango player. Author and composer of Argentine northern folk songs. Several recordings.