

IGLIRJAN KECI

General CV | Elbasan, Albania | iglirjankeci@gmail.com

PROFILE

I am Iglirjan Keci, born in 2005 and raised in Elbasan, Albania until the age of 16. I lived in Germany for four years, from age 16 to 20, where I gained international experience, studied, and developed my German language skills. I learned English from an early age mainly through the internet, online communication, reading, and media, and I am very fluent. I am now back in Albania and continuing my studies.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND

- Born in 2005 and raised in Elbasan, Albania.
- Lived in Germany for four years, from age 16 to 20.
- Currently living in Albania and continuing studies.
- Comfortable working in multicultural and multilingual environments.

LANGUAGES

- Albanian: Native language.
- English: Very fluent, learned from an early age through daily online use, communication, reading, and media.
- German: Learned while living, studying, and working in Germany for four years.

EXPERIENCE

- Customer service experience in Germany, including communication with customers and handling practical service-related tasks.
- Experience adapting to different cultures, work expectations, and communication styles in Albania and Germany.
- Strong self-learning background through online tools, research, and independent study.

EDUCATION

- Currently continuing studies in Albania.
- Previous study experience in Germany.

GENERAL SKILLS

- Good written communication in English and Albanian.
- Careful, reliable, and willing to follow detailed instructions.
- Comfortable using a computer, online platforms, email, and internet-based work tools.
- Able to learn new tasks independently and improve through feedback.
- Interested in remote work, translation, transcription, AI-data tasks, and customer support.

AVAILABILITY

- Available for part-time, freelance, and remote work opportunities, depending on schedule and task requirements.