Professional Profile Summary

I am a passionate and dedicated Associate Professor with over ten years of experience in academia and translation. Throughout my career, I have served as a positive mentor to many students, fostering their growth both academically and personally. I am a skilled researcher, with several books and research papers published, and have contributed extensively to my field. In addition to my academic work, I possess a broad range of skills, including research, communication, planning, assessment, evaluation, and monitoring. I am also proficient in presenting workshops, creating distribution plans, and have a strong background in translation and interpreting. Over the years, I have taken leadership roles, including overseeing the university's journal, ICT Center, websites, and holding various official positions at Faryab University. As an eloquent and assertive individual, I thrive in challenging environments and excel under pressure. I am also a professional translator and interpreter with over 10 years of experience and a Master's degree in Translation.
