RDA Europe Cascading Grants

The Research Data Alliance (RDA) is an international member-based organisation focused on the development of infrastructure and community activities to reduce the social and technical barriers to data sharing and re-use and to promote the acceleration of data driven innovation and discovery worldwide. RDA Europe 4.0 is the European plug-in to RDA and is mandated to ensure that European political, research, industrial and digital infrastructure stakeholders are aware of, engaged with and actively involved in the global RDA activities. RDA Europe 4.0 will support growing the community of research data experts and practitioners by offering grants for new RDA Europe national nodes, early career researchers and experts (for plenary support), RDA ambassadors, and RDA output-adoption.
