Powered with lithium ion-battery BATTILE is a compact and light-weight item that is projected to remove by vibration any air bubbles from the glued tiles right after they have been installed, its suction cup is able to lift up and easily lay small and medium tiles.

Facing big slabs BATTILE is essential to ensure perfect glue adherence avoiding annoying and dangerous “voids” that could cause breakage in the immediate future.

The intensity of vibrations is adjustable from 5000 to 18000 vibrations per minute, using the power regulator located near the handle.

Battile Pro

Thumping suction cup for tiles and slabs suitable for; ceramics, porcelain stoneware, granite, marble and glass.

Powered by a 16 V lithium ion battery BATTILE PRO can be used for indoor and outdoor installation. It replaces the traditional manual operation and helps to avoid problems due to the incorrect distribution of the adhesive under tiles and big slabs. The main features are: extreme use-fullness, safety, respect for the environment and easy use.

It is very compact and light and also allows the positioning of the tile through the suction cup (possible to lift up to 25 kg) and, thanks to the vibration, removes residual air bubbles that, if trapped between the adhesive and the tile, cause potential breakage. The intensity of the vibration is adjustable to three different frequencies.
