

The Neurodiverse Society

Alice Kell

2 0 2 1 - 2 0 2 2

With thanks to members of the Royal College of Art Neurodiverse Society.

Contents

Visualising Neurodiversity	4-15
Service Design for Autism	16-23
Across RCA	24-31

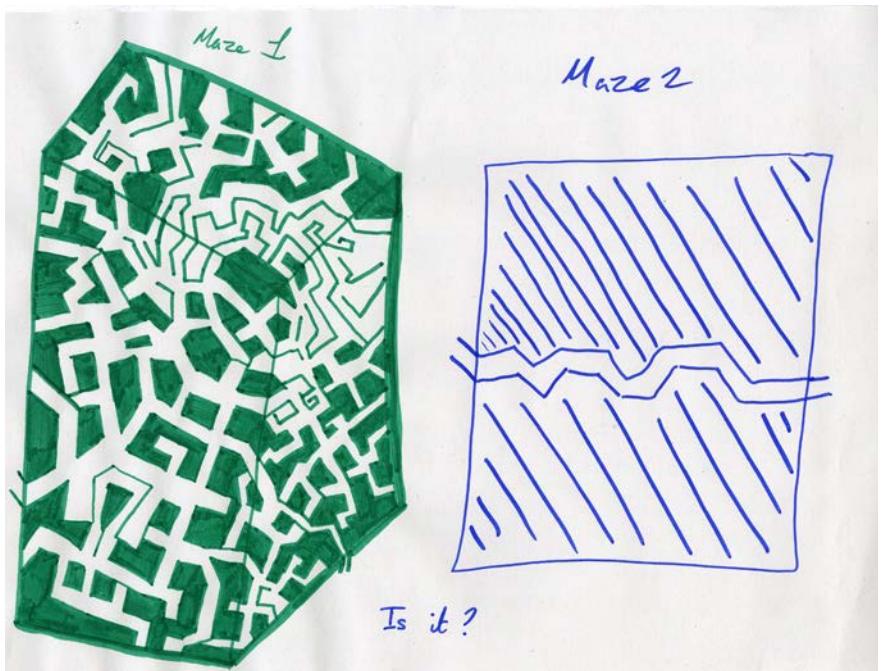

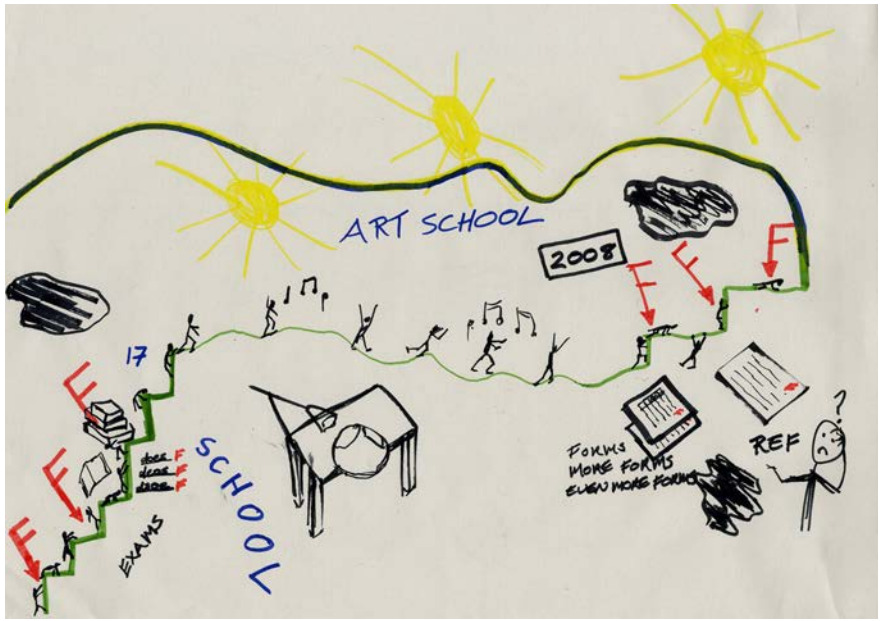

SKRIVENDE WAYS TO VISUALISE NEURODIVERSITY

- Illustration is a specific form of visual communication
- It can be used to represent complex information in a way that is easy to understand and share
- It can be used to represent complex information in a way that is easy to understand and share
- It can be used to represent complex information in a way that is easy to understand and share
- It can be used to represent complex information in a way that is easy to understand and share
- It can be used to represent complex information in a way that is easy to understand and share
- It can be used to represent complex information in a way that is easy to understand and share

PRO
POW
P

Visualising Neurodiversity

SIT

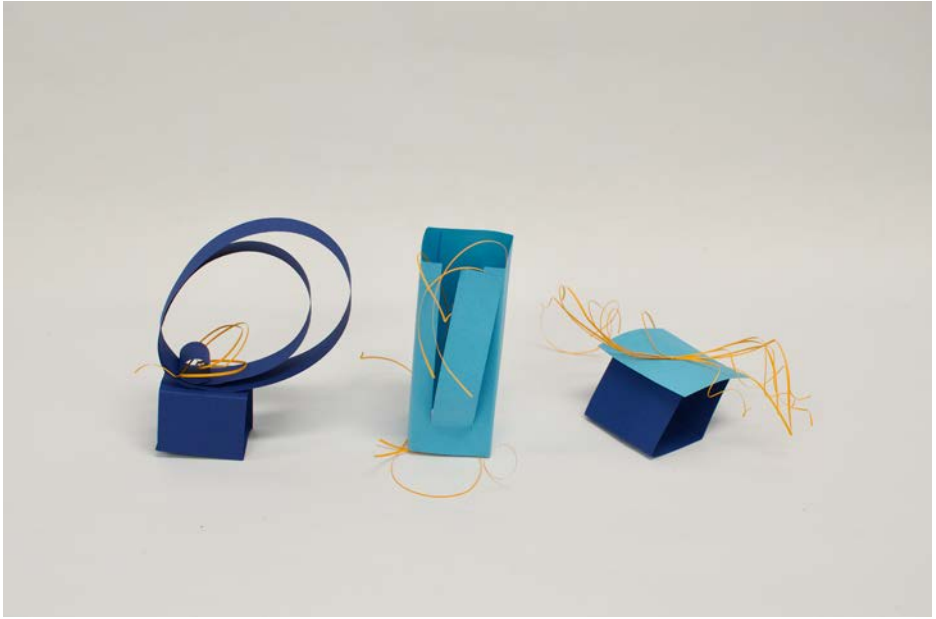

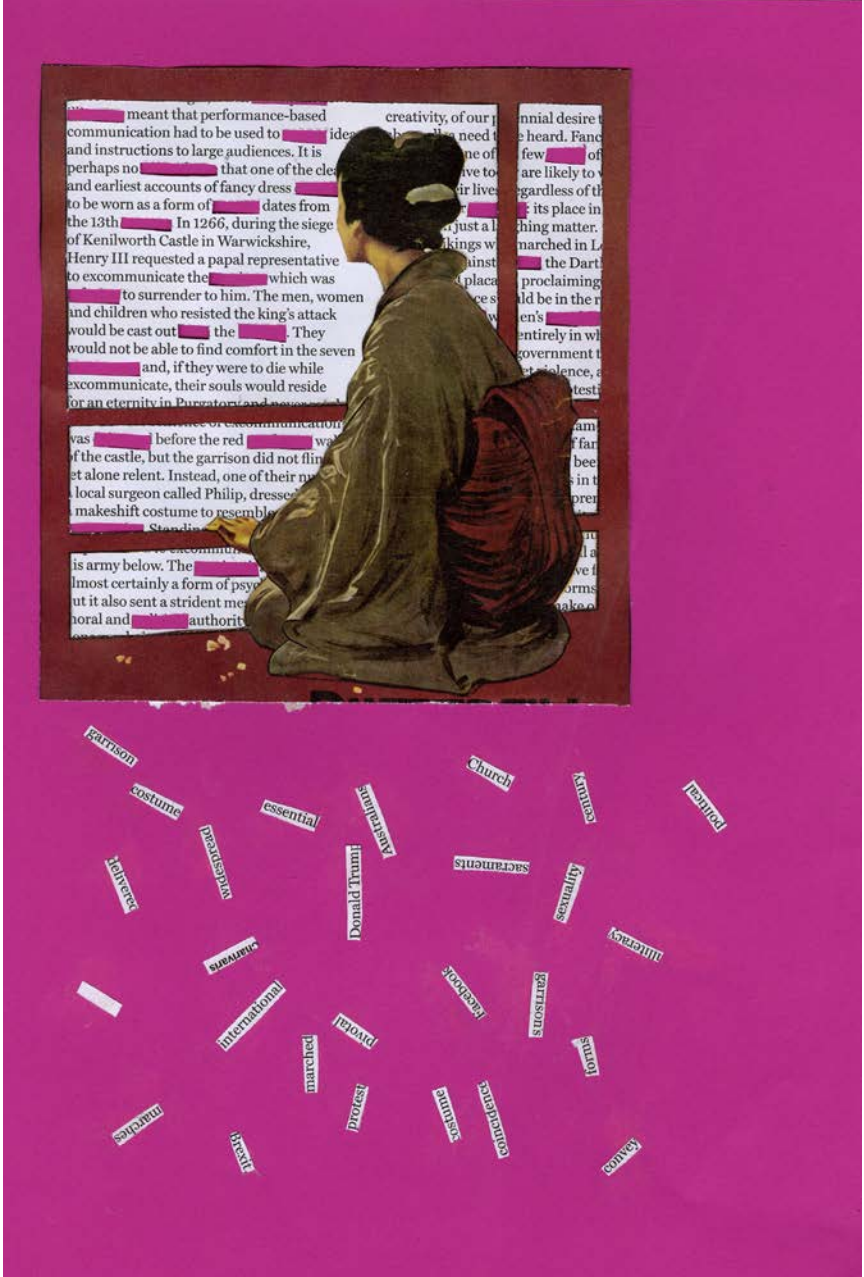

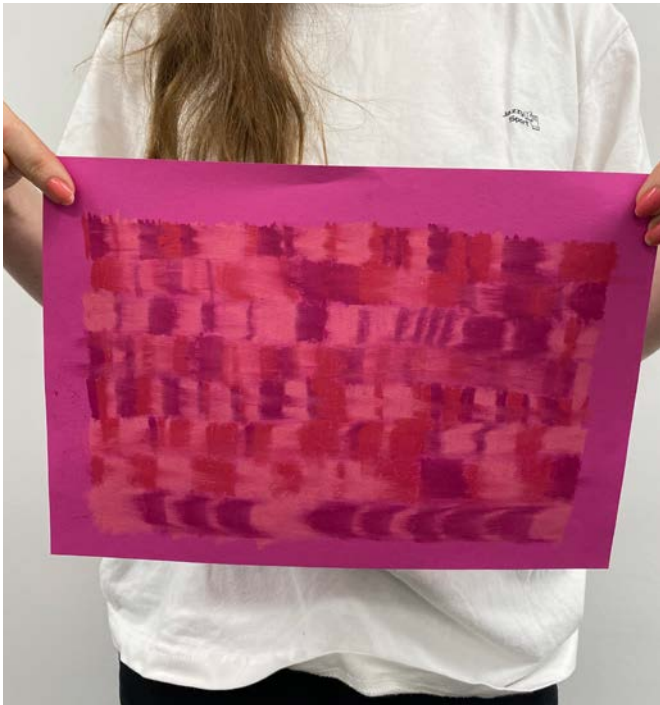

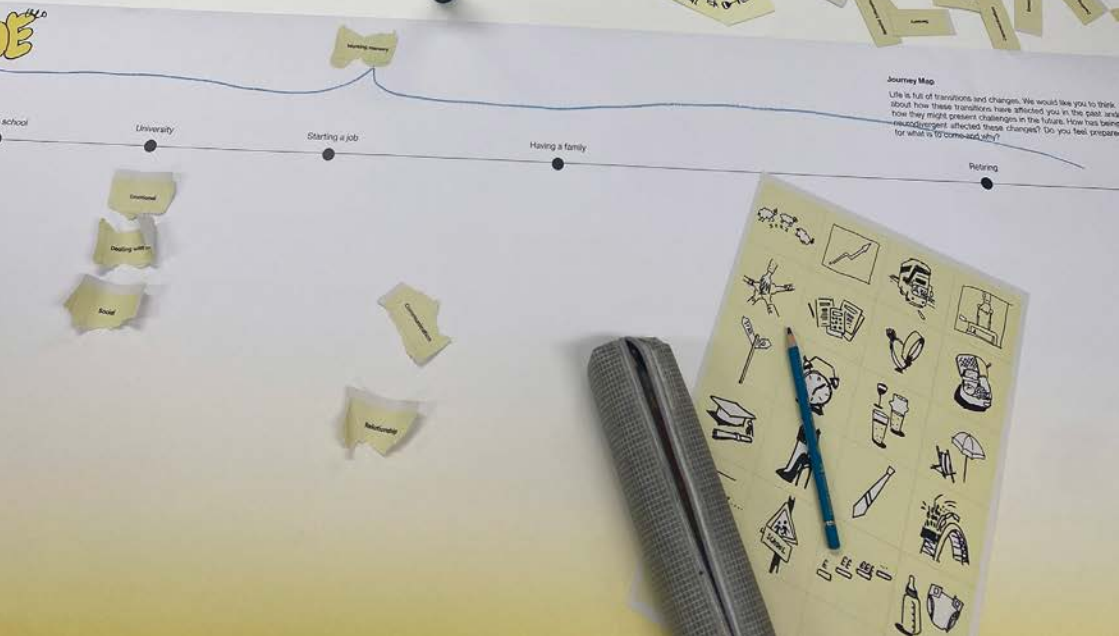

meant that performance-based communication had to be used to [redacted] ideas [redacted] all need to be heard. Fanc [redacted] and instructions to large audiences. It is [redacted] few [redacted] of [redacted] perhaps no [redacted] that one of the clea [redacted] are likely to v [redacted] and earliest accounts of fancy dress [redacted] regardless of th [redacted] their lives [redacted] to be worn as a form of [redacted] dates from [redacted] its place in [redacted] the 13th [redacted]. In 1266, during the siege [redacted] thing matter. [redacted] of Kenilworth Castle in Warwickshire, [redacted] marched in L [redacted] Henry III requested a papal representative [redacted] the Dart [redacted] to excommunicate the [redacted] which was [redacted] proclaiming [redacted] to surrender to him. The men, women [redacted] old be in the r [redacted] and children who resisted the king's attack [redacted] en's [redacted] would be cast out [redacted] the [redacted]. They [redacted] entirely in wh [redacted] would not be able to find comfort in the seven [redacted] government t [redacted] and, if they were to die while [redacted] at violence, a [redacted] excommunicate, their souls would reside [redacted] testi [redacted] for an eternity in Purgatory and never [redacted] test

[redacted] was [redacted] before the red [redacted] wa [redacted] of the castle, but the garrison did not flin [redacted] of far [redacted] et alone relent. Instead, one of their nu [redacted] been [redacted] local surgeon called Philip, dressed [redacted] s in t [redacted] makeshift costume to resemble [redacted] pren [redacted] [redacted].

[redacted] is army below. The [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] almost certainly a form of psyc [redacted] we fl [redacted] ut it also sent a strident me [redacted] forms [redacted] noral and [redacted] authorit [redacted] take o

- Garrison
- costume
- believe
- essential
- paradise
- superhero
- international
- matched
- manches
- Brave
- progress
- protest
- signature
- contender
- convey
- Church
- Kentux
- learned
- sacraments
- sexuality
- literary
- teachbook
- garrison
- boards
- proven

Service Design for Autism

1.BR3/00

LIBS/008

Clarity

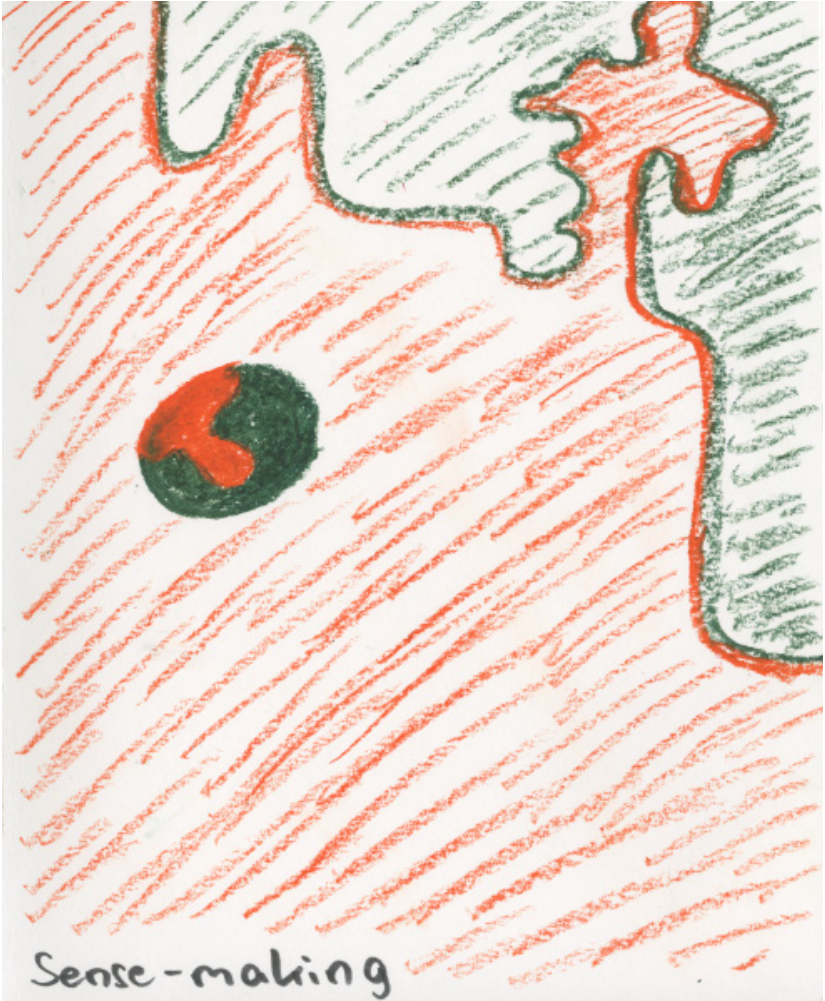

Clarity

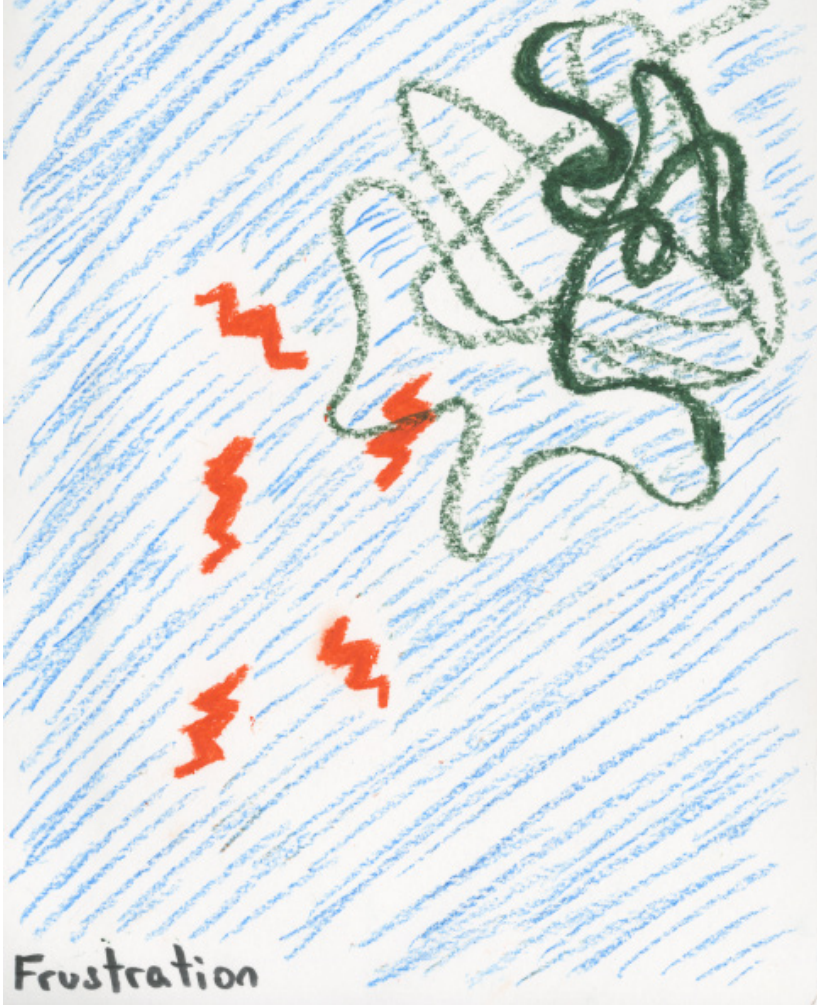

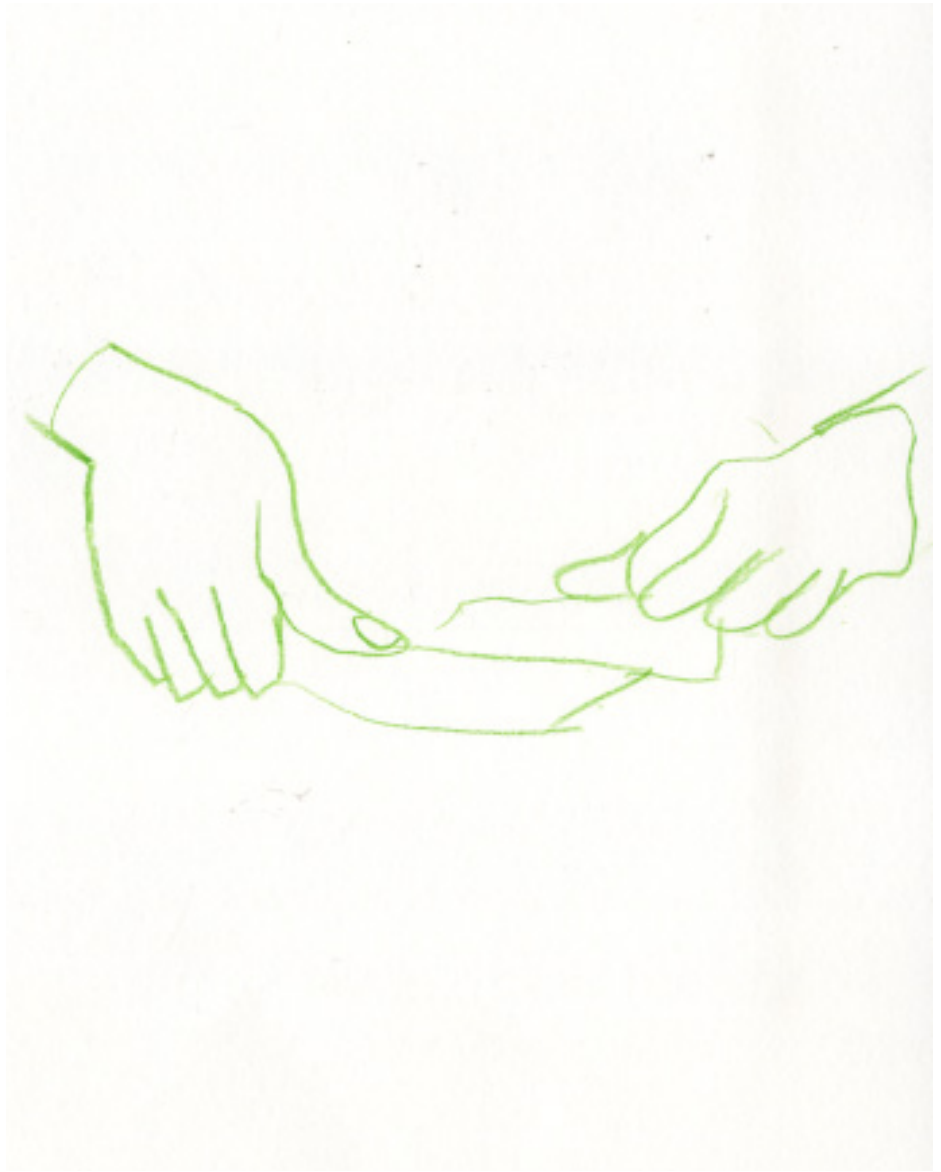

Across RCA

Royal College of Art