

Statues and monuments that were toppled in the United Kingdom during George Floyd protests in 2020

Most recent controversial statue of Margaret Thatcher in her hometown, Grantham, Lincolnshire, unveiled in 2022. The new memorial to the first female Prime Minister was hit by an egg within hours of its opening. The statue is already proving to be divisive within Grantham and across a wider audience following its unveiling, many have questioned the need for it.

There is a bloke selling eggs next to the Thatcher statue #Grantham