

REVITALIZING GROWTH THROUGH CONTENT DEVELOPMENT

CLIENT NAME:

The Bouqs Company

SERVICES:

Content + SEO

PROJECT BRIEF:

The Bouqs Company was a late player to the online floral vertical and was competing with established flower delivery companies.

INDUSTRY:

Ecommerce + Floral

In order to compete with already established flower delivery companies, our client needed to improve their authority and expand its number of keyword rankings.

THE CHALLENGE:

Growth in sessions had stalled YOY

However, they didn't have the internal resources needed to research and create the volume of content desired. Redefine created a monthly editorial process to streamline the research, creation, and publication of 75 pieces of content per month, across six months.

Clients did not have the internal resources to research and create the volume of content they desired

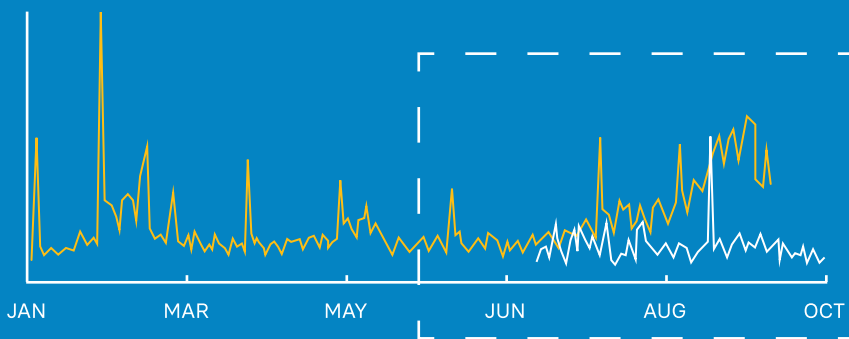

THE RESOLUTION:

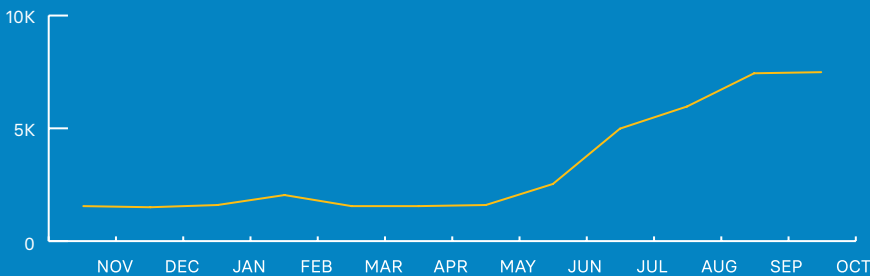

- + Developed a monthly editorial process to streamline research, creation, approval, editing, and posting of 75 pieces of content per month using Redefine's vetted team of writers.
- + Hyper-targeted content topics around the Five W's that trigger featured snippet wins in Google SERPs.
- + Identified striking distance keyword opportunities for inclusion in body copy and as internal links to increase authority.
