

Office Name Rules and Guidelines

As the RE/MAX network has expanded around the world – to the point where nobody in the world sells more real estate than RE/MAX – there is a greater need for care in the franchise name selection and approval process. The ever-evolving impact of the Internet on the real estate business and the broad geographic reach of more and more RE/MAX brokerages only multiply this need for consistency.

The rules for RE/MAX franchise office names appear below, and you will find attached a list of names, consistent with the rules, that have been pre-approved by RE/MAX World Headquarters. This list is provided for reference only, and is not an exhaustive or exclusive list of acceptable office names. Proposed names must be submitted to and approved by the Region and RE/MAX World Headquarters in writing before the franchise agreement is signed. While Regions are authorized to grant franchise names that comprise or incorporate terms from the attached list, the Region must submit names not found on the pre-approved list to RE/MAX World Headquarters for approval, consistent with these rules. The Region and RE/MAX World Headquarters reserve the right to deny approval of any name that either, in its sole discretion, believes may present a potential problem. The Region should submit potential office names to Josh Bolgren (U.S. Owned and U.S. Independent Region offices) or your region consultant (non-U.S.).

Caution: Approval of a name does not guarantee that a new franchisee can use such name without the possibility of conflict. The Region and RE/MAX World Headquarters review potential names to ensure that they are consistent with these rules, and that they are different from existing office names within a geographic or market area or region. It is the responsibility of each RE/MAX franchisee to ensure that the portion of the office name after “RE/MAX” does not infringe a third party’s rights. This may require consulting qualified legal counsel and/or conducting a name search with appropriate governmental agencies. In this regard, be advised that a corporate name or DBA registration generally does not guarantee that the name is non-infringing.

The basic rules for office names are as follows:

1. Office names cannot include the names of countries, states or provinces, cities or other geographic areas. This helps avoid consumer confusion and preserves an even playing field for existing and future RE/MAX affiliates because such names could give the false impression that all the agents serving the named cities or geographic areas work out of those offices.
2. Names cannot exaggerate the geographic area served by the office nor have the potential to confuse consumers with RE/MAX World Headquarters or the RE/MAX network as a whole.
3. No personal names or initials are permitted in RE/MAX franchise office names. This is true even if they appear on the pre-approved list. For example, while "Best" appears on the list, if the franchisee's name is "Best," that franchise cannot adopt a name that includes the term "Best."
4. Names cannot include key terms or trademarks belonging to RE/MAX World Headquarters or its affiliated entities, or certain legacy trademarks of RE/MAX World Headquarters currently not in use. Although not an exhaustive list, this includes: Above the Crowd, RE/MAX Green, The Real Estate Leaders, The Real Estate Superstars, Mainstreet, MAX/Center, Momentum, Out in Front, PMP, Premier Market Presence, R4, RE/MAX University, Outstanding Agents - Outstanding Results, RE/MAX Renowned Properties, The RE/MAX Collection, and Motto.

5. Potentially insensitive, offensive, or religiously or politically charged names are strongly disfavored.
6. Team. The term "Team" is not allowed to avoid confusion with Sales Associate teams. In the RE/MAX network, the term "Team" is used to describe a marketing alliance of Sales Associates, not RE/MAX offices.
7. Long names are discouraged. Shorter names on property signs and promotional items have a greater visual impact and are easier for consumers to remember. Shorter names also are more compatible with the requirements for office domain names that contain "remax." (See the RE/MAX Brand Identity: Trademark and Graphic Standards manual for those requirements.)

Examples of impermissible office names:

Name	Reason
RE/MAX Collection Properties	Registered mark "The RE/MAX Collection"
RE/MAX Momentum	Registered mark "Momentum"
RE/MAX Outstanding Agents	Registered mark "Outstanding Agents. Outstanding Results."
RE/MAX Leaders	Registered mark "The Real Estate Leaders"
RE/MAX Superstars	Registered mark "The Real Estate Superstars"
RE/MAX e-(anything)	Exaggerates service area
RE/MAX (anything).com	Exaggerates service area
RE/MAX U.S.A.	Exaggerates service area
RE/MAX Sierra Nevada	Exaggerates service area / geographic area
RE/MAX Global	Exaggerates service area; likely to be confused with RE/MAX World Headquarters

Special Cases:

- Certain words, even though not on the attached list, may be used, but only if they are preceded or followed by other words. These words include but are not necessarily limited to: "Brokers," "Country," "Commercial," "Group" and "Homes." (Example: RE/MAX Country Professionals or RE/MAX Choice Brokers.)
- Other words, including "Affiliates," "Associates," "Real Estate," "Realty" and "REALTORS" may be used, but only if preceded by a word or words other than "RE/MAX". (Example: RE/MAX Action Associates or RE/MAX First Realty.)
- The term "REALTORS," if used in an office name, must be preceded by a comma and appear in all upper case. (Example: RE/MAX Premier, REALTORS.)

Legacy Names:

Certain RE/MAX offices have names (particularly geographical names) that, although approved when the office was opened, would no longer be approved for a new office. The existing office, or a new office in the same multi-office brokerage, may be allowed to keep the name. However, the same name cannot be approved for use by an unrelated office elsewhere, or even, if the original brokerage closes, for a new office in the same area.
