RE/MAX Marketplace Continues to Grow with Addition of 8 RE/MAX Approved Suppliers in Q1

Spanning personal branding to digital media, new vendors help establish RE/MAX Marketplace as a destination for premium real estate business services

DENVER – Today, RE/MAX, LLC, announced the addition of eight companies to the RE/MAX Approved Supplier program, a list of vetted organizations providing business services to the RE/MAX network. All Approved Supplier services and products are offered through the RE/MAX Marketplace, a one-stop portal for RE/MAX affiliates in the U.S. and Canada to find exclusive deals on digital products, services, apps, technology and more. Agents can purchase services and order materials directly through the RE/MAX Marketplace, further streamlining their business operations.

New members of the RE/MAX Approved Supplier program include:

BRANDco.

BRANDco. helps agents grow their business by creating a professional, engaging, and consistent personal brand that accurately represents their business. Services include logo design, social media graphics, business cards and custom email signatures.

Canon

Canon Solutions America, Inc. supplies industry-leading enterprise, production, and large format printing and imaging solutions, supported by exceptional professional service offerings. The company helps businesses of all sizes discover ways to improve sustainability, increase efficiency, drive digital transformation, and control costs in conjunction with high volume, digital, and traditional printing.

Hemlane

Hemlane is a property management platform that streamlines and automates the entire lifecycle of rental management, from tenant screening to rent collection. Key features for agents include the ability to eliminate trust accounts, sending rent directly to the owner, and a 24/7 US-based repair coordination team to troubleshoot requests and hire service professionals.

Listen360

Listen360 is a leading provider of customer feedback in franchising. The platform provides real-time business intelligence through Net Promoter surveying and analysis and generates positive reviews for individual brokers and agents.
