

September 1, 2022 (Needham, MA) – Treeful Damaso Aniceto, Inc. (TDA), announce a merger with CPA firm Bonanno, Savino, Davies & Ganley, P.C. (BSDG). With complementary operations, geographies and nearly four decades of service between them, the two firms together will operate under TDA.

Founded in 2014, TDA is a tax, accounting and financial planning group specializing in small business, individual and Not-for-Profit services. Jill Treeful, Ryan Damaso and Michael Aniceto, founding partners of TDA, are excited about the merger and the expansion of resources, productivity, and efficiency they can provide to their clients.

“In the fast-changing world of tax and financial planning, TDA strives to be on the forefront by combining the latest technology with the expertise of our seasoned staff. Merging with BSDG affords TDA the necessary resources to provide our clients a “one-stop shop” for all their strategic financial goals and objectives, including tax preparation, financial planning, and consulting for their personal and small business needs.” said Tax Partner, Ryan Damaso.

With extensive experience in all facets of tax preparation, accounting services and tax planning, the BSDG team has provided exemplary service to their community for nearly 35 years.

“The merger follows a long-time affiliation with the TDA partners” said Tom Savino, founding managing partner of BSDG. “Blending the experienced staff of BSDG with the talented next generation TDA partners, staff, and technology, will seamlessly provide continuity for client services. The matching cultures of the firms along with multiple offices will enhance the growth opportunities for existing staff and new employees”.

TDA’s goal of servicing their clients with high-level enriched services is shared by the team at BSDG.

The merger will add many additional associates to TDA, doubling the firm’s size while also adding an office location in Framingham.
