Broadway’s greatest songwriter. A daring musical that has fascinated theatre fans for 40 years. And an upstart theater company that’s emerged as one of New York’s most creative. The result is “an early contender for the most exhilarating production of the year” (The Star-Ledger).

Roundabout presents Fiasco Theater’s new production of Stephen Sondheim and George Furth’s Merrily We Roll Along, the audacious musical about three lifelong friends who fall apart and come together trying to make their dreams come true. It’s “a glittering jewel revealed” (New York Stage Review). Don’t miss the theatre event no lover of musicals should miss.
