The WANDERERS

By Anna Ziegler
Directed by Barry Edelstein

Off Broadway's new hit about love, faith, and Brooklyn is "absorbing, twisty, and thoughtful — and the finest play of the year" (The Wall Street Journal).

In The Wanderers, two couples from very different worlds face the joys and challenges of commitment, culture, and community — until a surprise email from a movie star puts one of their marriages to an unexpected test. Now extended through April 2 only, this "perfectly cast, superlative Roundabout Theatre Company production" (as The Wall Street Journal goes on to say), asks the vital question, Can we ever be happy with what we have while we have it?
