

ST. GEORGE LIBRARY IS PROUD TO PARTNER WITH ROUNABOUT THEATRE COMPANY

Roundabout Theatre Company celebrates the power of theatre by spotlighting classics from the past, cultivating new works of the present, and educating minds for the future. A not-for-profit company, Roundabout fulfills that mission by producing familiar and lesser-known plays and musicals; discovering and supporting talented playwrights; reducing the barriers that can inhibit theatergoing; collaborating with a diverse team of artists; building educational experiences; and archiving over five decades of production history.

PARTICIPATE IN WORKSHOPS AND EVENTS WITH ROUNABOUT ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE!

Join us for curated artistic workshops designed to spark the creative process. Teaching Artists, Carrie Ellman-Larsen and Nick Simone will guide participants to create their own piece of original theatre by telling stories and sharing memories with words, movements, and soundscapes. Through the exploration of theatre games, improvisation techniques, playwrighting, and technical theatre elements such as sound and lighting, participants will dive into ensemble building and begin creating their own original piece of theatre.
