Eligibility for Funding

1. You must meet the following criteria to be eligible for any funding from the Fund (the “Funding”):
 - (a) you must be delivering the relevant project in respect which funding is sought (the “Project”) in the County of Limerick, Applications in respect of Projects that are outside of the County of Limerick will not be considered; and
 - (b) the Project must support one or more of the following areas: (i) the community in the County of Limerick; (ii) Skills and Education; (iii) the environment; (iv) those with disabilities; and/or (v) regeneration.

Applications for and Use of Funding and Monitoring

2. Applications will be made by completing the relevant application form, to be found at this link between 28 September 2026 and 29 January 2027. The decision on your application will be made by a panel, comprising of representatives from the European Tour group and Limerick City and County Council (and any other persons that may be added from time to time) (the “Panel”), at its discretion, on or before 30 April 2027. All decisions of the Panel will be final and not open to appeal of any kind.
3. You must use the Funding solely for the purpose of performance of the Project.
4. The award of Funding to you will be subject to monitoring by Ryder Cup 2027 Commercial Designated Activity Company (“RCDAC”), or a member of the Panel. You agree to keep full, proper and up to date books, accounts and records and any other relevant documentation (including invoices) which demonstrates how the Funding has been used. At the request of RCDAC, you must make this documentation available to RCDAC and/or its nominated representatives for monitoring, inspection and copying. You must take all reasonable actions to minimise the risk of fraud and notify RCDAC immediately of any instances of attempted, suspected or proven fraud.
5. You must submit a report to RCDAC within two months of completion of the Project, including: (a) a financial statement showing how the Funding was used; and (b) a summary of Project outcomes and sustainability impacts.
6. RCDAC reserves the right to audit your books and records relating to the award of Funding and how it has been used at any time and you agree to comply with all reasonable requests of RCDAC in a timely manner relating to such audit.

Your Obligations

7. You must have committed the Funding in full within 12 months of the date of your award letter, unless RCDAC, or the Panel, has agreed an alternative date with you in writing.
8. At all times you shall: (a) maintain adequate insurances to cover against the risks which may arise in connection with any property or activity undertaken in performance of the Project and provide such evidence as is reasonably required by RCDAC to confirm the existence of such insurance upon request; (b) put in place and maintain appropriate systems to undertake due diligence, in respect of anti-slavery and any other areas as RCDAC may require, before utilising any part of the Funding to procure any goods or services from third parties; and (c) co-operate fully with RCDAC and third parties as reasonably instructed by RCDAC to monitor your use of the Funding.

Publicity and Acknowledgement of Funding

9. You agree to give suitable acknowledgement of the Funding awarded by RCDAC from the Fund for the Project in reports, papers, articles, social media, interviews and other material. You also agree to take part in any publicity or promotional activity as reasonably requested by RCDAC in connection with the Fund.
10. You must obtain RCDAC’s written consent before using any promotional content which relates to the Project or your use of the Funding, particularly if you propose to use any of RCDAC’s branding or logos or anything related in any way to the Ryder Cup.

Repayment of Funding

11. If: (i) you fail in any material respect to comply with any of your obligations under these Terms; (ii) any act or omission by you has or may have a detrimental impact, in the opinion of RCDAC, on the brand or reputation of RCDAC or the Project; or (iii) RCADC has reason to believe, in its opinion, that any information you have given in connection with your application for Funding is incorrect, RCDAC may require the Funding to be repaid in full or part and shall be entitled to suspend or cease the provision of any other support or services offered and no future payments of such Funding (if any) shall be payable.

Intellectual Property

12. You will provide RCDAC with any and all documents, programmes, designs, prototypes, products, materials, reports, letters, advice, information and source files developed by you or on your behalf which relate to the Project or which demonstrate your use of the Funding in any form ("Project Output").
13. You hereby grant to RCDAC a perpetual, non-exclusive, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, sub-licensable licence to use the Project Output, whether alone or incorporated in or in conjunction with other works, in any media, for any purpose related to the Project, the award of Funding and RCDAC's activities to support local communities in Ireland ("Licensed Rights").
14. You hereby represent, warrant and undertake to RCDAC that you: (a) have the right to grant the Licensed Rights to RCDAC; (b) are not aware, having made reasonable enquiry, of any claim by any third party that the Project Output or any pre-existing material incorporating the Project Output or included within the Project Output, or the use of the Project Output by RCDAC will infringe any rights of any third party and you agree to immediately inform RCDAC upon becoming aware of any such claim; and (c) have secured all third party permissions and releases necessary to grant the Licensed Rights to RCDAC.

Warranties

15. You hereby represent, warrant and undertake that: (a) no litigation or arbitration is current or pending or, so far as you are aware, threatened, which has or could have an adverse impact on your ability to perform and comply with these Terms; and (b) the information contained in your application form is complete, true and accurate.

Confidentiality

16. You agree to keep in strict confidence all technical or commercial know-how, specifications, inventions, processes or initiatives which are of a confidential nature and have been disclosed to you by or on behalf of RCDAC, including all confidential information concerning RCDAC's business or the Project which you may obtain, save that you may acknowledge the Funding awarded by RCDAC for the Project as permitted under clause 9. You shall restrict disclosure of such confidential material on a need to know basis for the purpose of performance of the Project and shall ensure that such persons are subject to obligations of confidentiality corresponding to those which bind you.
17. The provisions of clause 16 shall not apply to any information which: (a) is required to be disclosed by law or any governmental or regulatory organisation and in those circumstances only after prior consultation with RCDAC; (b) is lawfully obtained by you free of any duty of confidentiality otherwise than directly or indirectly from RCDAC; (c) is already properly and lawfully in your possession (as evidenced your written records) other than as a result of a breach of clause 16; (d) you can demonstrate is publicly known (other than as a result of a breach of clause 16); or (e) is disclosed with RCDAC's prior written consent.
18. The terms of the award letter and these Terms are and shall remain strictly confidential and shall not be disclosed by you without RCDAC's prior written consent or as otherwise required by law.
