2010 RYDER CUP

Celtic Manor Resort, Newport, Wales
October 1-4, 2010

13½ — 14½

Corey Pavin (USA Captain) — Colin Montgomerie (Europe Captain)

It was an atmosphere befitting a title bout on a Monday afternoon at the Celtic Manor Resort in Wales. After six-plus pulsating hours of the U.S. and Europe trading punches to determine which side would possess a four-pound gold trophy, the pendulum swung to the last singles match between Northern Ireland's Graeme McDowell, the reigning U.S. Open Champion, and Texan Hunter Mahan, a hero of the 2008 Ryder Cup. McDowell made his big statement by rolling in a 15-foot birdie putt on the par-4 16th hole to go 2-up. After finding the green on the par-3 17th hole, McDowell watched as Mahan hit his tee short of the green, flub his chip and then after one last shot, approach McDowell with hat in hand.

Europe's victory marked the first time since 1991 at Kiawah Island that the Ryder Cup was decided by the final singles match. This thriller was set up by contributions by America's best players and a stirring rally from a four-hole deficit by 21-year-old Rickie Fowler, the third youngest U.S. player in golf's ultimate spectacle. Thanks to a week of rain, the Ryder Cup was extended past its scheduled finish for the first time in its 83-year history.
