INTERESTING FACTS:

NOTE 1: Information regarding the date of the first “Cobweb Chaser” is from an email from Al Becken (5/13/2020), one of the Founding Fathers and original member of the SARR Board of Directors:

“So, January 74 would have been the earliest for a New Year’s Run & would have been in McAllister Park-probably rather informal & not a highly organized or promoted event. I was race coordinator but can’t remember.”

Although Al says he was the “race coordinator,” Ken Bashore (also an original member of the Board of Directors), in a conversation with Sally Rios in October, 2010, states that Fred Boord was the race director.

NOTE 2: From Bev and Royce Gragg (AKA: BARG), email correspondence 5/14/2020 :

“(as best as we can remember... we’re old): We were relatively new officers in the SARR, we loved running, and we noticed that there had been no race on New Year’s Day for some years. We approached Walter B. (Bobrukiewicz) (the events officer at the time) with the idea that we would direct a SARR 5k on NYD (our first attempt at directing.) With some discussion about how to finance it without a large outlay of money from the SARR and the support of Walter B., it was approved. So began the odyssey. We found a cartoon of a figure in running attire, sitting dazed with stars and such buzzing around his head; so we got Rosie Bustamante (quite an artist in her own rite) to create a silk screen, and we all got together to transfer the image to about 200 white hand towels. We gave one to each participant (probably about 150). We got a number of merchants in the area to donate items or “gift cards” for their shop, as door prizes. The entry fee was nominal, $5-$7. We got a keg donated and some food. We gave a trophy to the overall winner, and doled out the door prizes by drawing. Ended up clearing about $50. We continued the race until we left officer-ship in SARR...about 5 or 6 years. It was fun...just never got to run it. We don’t remember what we did as prizes for the remaining races, but it was always low key and a lot of fun.

NOTE 3: Documentation listed below that is within quotes is directly from SARR Newsletters with some editing by Ernie Oakes. Punctuation, grammar and spelling errors left in. Most early Newsletters were prepared by Al Becken using a typewriter.

From 1979-1982, no mention in Newsletter of anything related to a New Year specific run.

*Started in 1974 as New Year's Run/Pancake Breakfast, not always held on New Year's Day but generally during the first week of January. Morphed into New Year's Run as participation outgrew pancake cooking capacity. Additionally, because of legal concerns, IHOP decided to stop selling SARR pancake mix in five gallon buckets.

From December 1974 SARR Newsletter: "January 11, 1975 – "SARRS ANNUAL TRAIL JOG AND BREAKFAST. 9AM. N.E. Preserve. $1.00 each. ALL YOU CAN EAT. Reservations please. Contact BILL JESSE. Bring the entire family and the kid's bikes. You do your own "thing"."

From January 1975 SARR Newsletter: "11 JANUARY 1975: 75 people turned out for the TRAIL JOG AND BREAKFAST in the N.E. Preserve. THE PARK WAS FULL OF SARR. At 7 AM the temperature was about 40 degrees but reached 60 degrees by 10 AM. ED BERNAL had difficulty determining which side to cook the pancakes on first; nevertheless, ED and helpers served over 350 pancakes. BOB MIDDLETON gave a presentation on le muscle and foot problems while the runners/joggers consumed the pancakes, 5 quarts of syrup, 2 lbs of oleo, 4 gallons of orange juice, 4,1/2 gallons of milk, 40 packages of cereal and about 600 cups of hot chocolate and/or coffee."

The Ed Bernal mentioned in the above paragraph was Eddie Bernal. Eddie, a 1967 Jefferson High School class graduate, later became a Catholic priest known for running Loop 410 as a fund raiser.

From January 1976 SARR Newsletter: "3 JANUARY 1976— SARR SECOND ANNUAL FREEDOM TRAIL JOG AND PANCAKE BREAKFAST. Breakfast starts at 9 AM. McAllister Park (N.E. Preserve). $1.50 adult, 75¢ under 18. ALL YOU CAN EAT, NO LIMIT. Restroom facilities. Picnic tables. Bring the entire family and bikes. BIG ED and LITTLE WALLY the pancake makers. Meet fellow SARR. Share running stories. RESERVATIONS PLEASE. Call KEN BASHORE."

From December 1976 SARR Newsletter: "8 JAN 1977 SAT-9AM. SARR THIRD ANNUAL CHUCK WAGON TRAIL JOG AND PANCAKE BREAKFAST. Breakfast starts at 9AM. Olmos Park. $1.50 adult, 75¢ 18 and under. ALL YOU CAN EAT-NO LIMIT. Restroom facilities. Picnic tables. Bring your entire family. Come early and do your "thing" (walk, jog, run or whatever) and then eat your fill. SARR T-shirts and patches available. Bring a friend. Meet your fellow SARR. Share running stories. Presentation of SAP (Special Awards Project) is to be made. These are awards for participation by members in SARR events. Reservations please: KEN BASHORE COME ANYWAY. Olmos Park is located on the west side of Devine at the intersection of Devine and Alamo Heights Blvd. From the south, take Hildebrand to Devine, north on Devine past the Olmos Basin Sports area to the intersection of Alamo Heights Blvd. Turn west into the park and proceed to the park building. From the north take Jones Maltsburger south which changes into Devine, stay on Devine to the intersection of Alamo Heights Blvd. The breakfast will be INSIDE the park building."

1987 - Name changed to Cobweb Chaser. See "NOTE 2" above.

Jerry Negrete, RD from 2006 - 2015, always stated that the Cobweb was the easiest race to direct. Jerry was always punctual with his race information having his flyers for the next year's race within a few months after the current race was held.

Jerry also states, email 5/12/2020, that "After Walter (Bobrukiewicz) passed in 2007, there was always a cowboy hat on the flyer in his memory. He talked me into directing the event." See attached race flyers that Jerry provided.

Starting in 1987, although the race was timed, awards were only given to the first overall male/female finishers.

SARR Calendars were distributed to all participants. Calendars listed the dates of upcoming SARR races, and featured pictures of participants from the previous year's races. Calendars were distributed from approximately the 1980s thru 2019.

In the mid-2000s, breakfast casseroles were donated by the Black-eye Pea Restaurant with Joan Bobrukiewicz preparing black-eye peas for runners.

Starting in 2000 and continuing thru 2015, the race director offered a champagne toast to the new year.

In 2016, race was timed and age group awards were given.
