

SAN ANTONIO ROADRUNNERS

Freedom Day 4 Miler

TITLE: Current: Freedom Day 4 Miler
Originally named – Firecracker 4 Miler

DATES: 1991 – First time held

NAMES: Starting in 1992, the name of this event changed practically every year. Among the many names in the minutes, entry forms, and coming events schedules were: SARR 4 Miler; Freedom Day 4 Miler; Freedom 4 Miler; Freedom 5k, and Freedom Day 5K. All events, regardless of the name and distance, were held on July 4.

DISTANCES: Info taken from flyers, newsletters, and/or emails.
5K in 2000, 2001, and possibly 2008
4 Miles other years

2008 Paul Baltutis

2009– 2012 Scott Peacock
2013 – 2015 David Sanchez
2015- 2018 Erik Burchiaga

INTERESTING FACTS:

Email (2015) from Bette Delgado, widow of SARR President John Delgado, states that John initiated the July 4th race but she did not give a date or location. Sally Rios remembers in the early years, John held the race at Woodlawn Lake.

2008 Race Location – In researching the location for this event, conflicting information was found. The 2008 May SARR minutes indicate that the race would be held at Woodlawn Lake but, in the coming events section, the location was listed as Kelly AFB. Also, this section listed the race as a 5k. The entry form included in the July 2008 SARR Newsletter, shows the event as Freedom Day 4 Miler to be held at Woodlawn Lake. However, again, events section shows it as “Freedom Day 4 Miler at Kelly AFB.” A 2008 email from Whitney Lawrence, Past President SARR, to William Jenkins of SAPD is attached. Officer Jenkins was the person that had to approve all race routes.

SARR had several races included in the Alamo Series, a series “...comprised of nine races between April and October, each with varying distance, providing an ideal dovetail for individual and group training schedules.” Training was for the Rock ‘n Roll Marathon scheduled to be held in San Antonio on November 16, 2008. The Fourth of July 4 miler as well as the SARR Wine Run and Fall Fest were part of the nine races. See attached flyer.

ATTACHMENTS:

Copies of SARR Events Calendar –

- 1978 “Independence Midnight Run – 4 Miler” on July 29 at McAllister Park.
- 1990 “Independence 4-Mile Run” on July 14 at Brackenridge Park; however, it was not an SARR event. In this listing, SARR events are bolded.
- 1991 July 4 “SARR Firecracker 4-Miler” at Ft. Sam Houston NOTE: Although SARR Events Calendars lists location at Ft. Sam Houston, the entry form shows the location as Kelly AFB. Entry form attached.
- 1993 July 3 “SARR Freedom 4 Miler” at Kelly AFB
- 1994 July 4 “Freedom 4 Miler” at Kelly AFB

Entry Forms: 1991, 2011, 2013 – 2015

Dear Mr. Ratliff

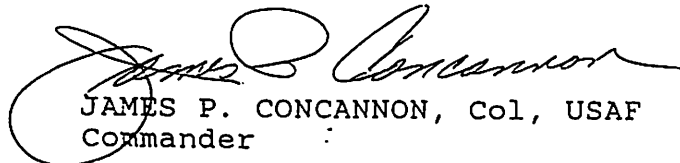

We are pleased to again host the Endurathon, Marathon Relay and Freedom Run in 1995. As in the past, the facilities at the Fitness Center will be available to support your requirements. Having supported these events in the past, the staff at the Bennett Fitness Center is well aware of the support requirements necessary to make sure these running events are again successful.

Please make sure your POC's for each event contact and coordinate the dates and requirements with respective base agencies to ensure success.

My POC at the Bennett Fitness Center will be Paul Prentice, Sports and Fitness Director at ext 925-4846/47/48.

Thanks again for allowing Kelly AFB the opportunity to host and participate in these well received community events. I'm sure they will again be a big success.

Sincerely

JAMES P. CONCANNON, Col, USAF
Commander

25TH or 40th ANNUAL????

A History of the SARR Freedom 4-Mile Run

Compiled by Ernie Oakes and Sally Rios

On July, 2015, the United States celebrated its 239 birthday. July 4th or Independence Day commemorates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. This day, which is a national holiday, is celebrated with parades, barbecues, fireworks, etc. The San Antonio RoadRunners (SARR) join in the celebration by sponsoring the Freedom 4-Miler.

I (Sally) was asked to put together a history of the Freedom 4-Miler. Unfortunately, the SARR Forefathers and other SARR officers did not do a real good job of keeping records on the SARR races. With the help of ERNIE OAKES, his copies of the SARR Newsletter, and my memory, I did my best to put together a history. Ernie, who joined the club in 1974, has every copy of the SARR Newsletter that was printed up until the Newsletter went digital. These old Newsletters have been a great help in tracking SARR History.

The 2015 race was first thought to be the 40th Annual Running of the Freedom 4-Miler but now that is in question. For all you observant runners, you may remember that the 2014 Freedom 4-Miler claimed to be the 39th Annual. So, naturally this would be the 40th.

Like all of the SARR races, the name of the race may have changed over the years. In 1976, SARR sponsored two events that might have been held to celebrate the 4th. However, the "Spirit of '76 Fun Run" was held on July 17 and the "'76 Midnight Independence Run" was held on July 31. The "Independence Midnight Run," notice the name change, was held in 1978 and 1979. In 1981 and 1982, (name change again), the "Independence Moonlight Run" was held. All of these races were held on dates other than July 4.

In 1990, there was an Independence 4-Mile Run on July 4 at Brackenridge Park but it was NOT an SARR event. Thought I'd point that out before some of you go racing for old Newsletters. An SARR race celebrating the fourth, "Firecracker 4-Mile Run," held at Ft. Sam Houston, appears in 1991. The "SARR Freedom 4-Miler," as it is currently known, finally appears on July 3, 1993, at Kelly AFB (now Port San Antonio). The 1994 SARR Freedom 4-Miler was actually held on July 4 at Kelly.

Full disclosure here – copies of the 1991 and 1992 SARR Newsletters are missing. So until they are found or proof is provided, July 1991 is considered the first time SARR Freedom 4-miler was held. Whew!!!!

The name changes are not the only changes to this race. There were changes in race directors as well as venues. Race directors included: John Delgado, Debra (Acosta) Beyer, Paul Baltutis, Scott Peacock, and, most recently, David Sanchez.

The venues included Ft. Sam Houston; Woodlawn Lake; Kelly AFB; OP Schnabel Park; the National Shooting Complex; and it is currently held at the S.T.A.R.S. Soccer/Toyota Fields SA Scorpions location. Each venue had unique qualities. Here is what I remember about some of them.

Woodlawn Lake – Held at this venue two or three times at the request of the City of San Antonio. The City wanted to have the four-mile run as part of their City celebration. Since the circumference of the lake is about one and a half miles, getting a four-mile route proved challenging. But the bigger challenge was dealing with campers, vendors, and the parking. The most vivid memory was the year that runners' cars were ticketed for parking in "no parking" zones. The problem was that the "no parking" signs went up after the cars were parked. The word spread quickly and runners sprinted off to move their vehicles before the vehicles were ticketed and/or towed. Needless to say, SARR changed the venue.

Kelly AFB – No parking problems here. No traffic to deal with; just asphalt, sun, and warehouses. The staging area was a nice small park with a big pavilion.

National Shooting Complex – held here twice. Perfect venue – plenty of parking; no traffic; sun/shade; nice pavilion; restrooms; and just enough inclines to make the race challenging.

O.P. Schnabel Park – held here twice. Shade, nice pavilion, but, again, parking was a challenge. One year, the race was a point-to-point run. The run started at Mainland Drive, proceeded on Leon Creek Greenway, and finished at O.P. Schnabel. Runners were bussed from O.P. to the start.

S.T.A.R.S. Soccer/Toyota Fields SA Scorpions – Plenty of parking and an express way overpass provided sufficient shade. Course goes through the parking lots with one challenging hill.

So there you have it – the History of the SARR Freedom 4-Miler according to Ernie and Sally. If anyone has documented information about this event, either adding to it or correcting it, please forward to me at sarios1949@att.net.

So if you participated in the July 4, 2015, SARR run, you celebrated the SILVER (25th) Running of the SARR Freedom 4-miler. Or, you celebrated our nations' 239th birthday. We know that date is correct! Either way, hope you had a great 4th!!!!.

The Alamo Series is a collaboration of the San Antonio running community, providing a progression of high-quality races to prepare local athletes for the San Antonio Rock 'n' Roll Marathon in November. The series is comprised of nine races between April and October, each with varying distances, providing an ideal dovetail for individual and group training schedules. Participation is tracked for all races in the series, and athletes who complete seven or more are eligible for awards at the series conclusion. For more information about the Alamo Series, links to individual races, or to check participation status, visit the series website www.AlamoSeries.com.

Officer Jenkins,

As per our phone conversation a couple of weeks ago, please review and estimate the police and barricade costs pertaining to the following course. It would be our intention to use the Park Police wherever possible, and SAPD only as required. The race will start at 8 am and the slowest walkers will be off the city streets within one hour of the start.

Attached below please find a map of the four mile course which we are planning for July 4th.

The Start (#1) is on the north side of the Lake on W. French at Vottum.

It heads east on W. French around the east end of the lake on Alexander and then Tobin.

It enters the park sidewalk system right after the Tobin entrance gate and stays on the sidewalk to the west end of the lake.

It leaves the sidewalk onto W. French and heads west across Rouse, Peacock, Wilson, Emory, Germania and Tulane.

It turns around on W. French just before St. Cloud.

It returns on W. French re-crossing those same intersections back east to the lake sidewalk system.

It then stays on the sidewalks around the north, east and south portions of the lake.

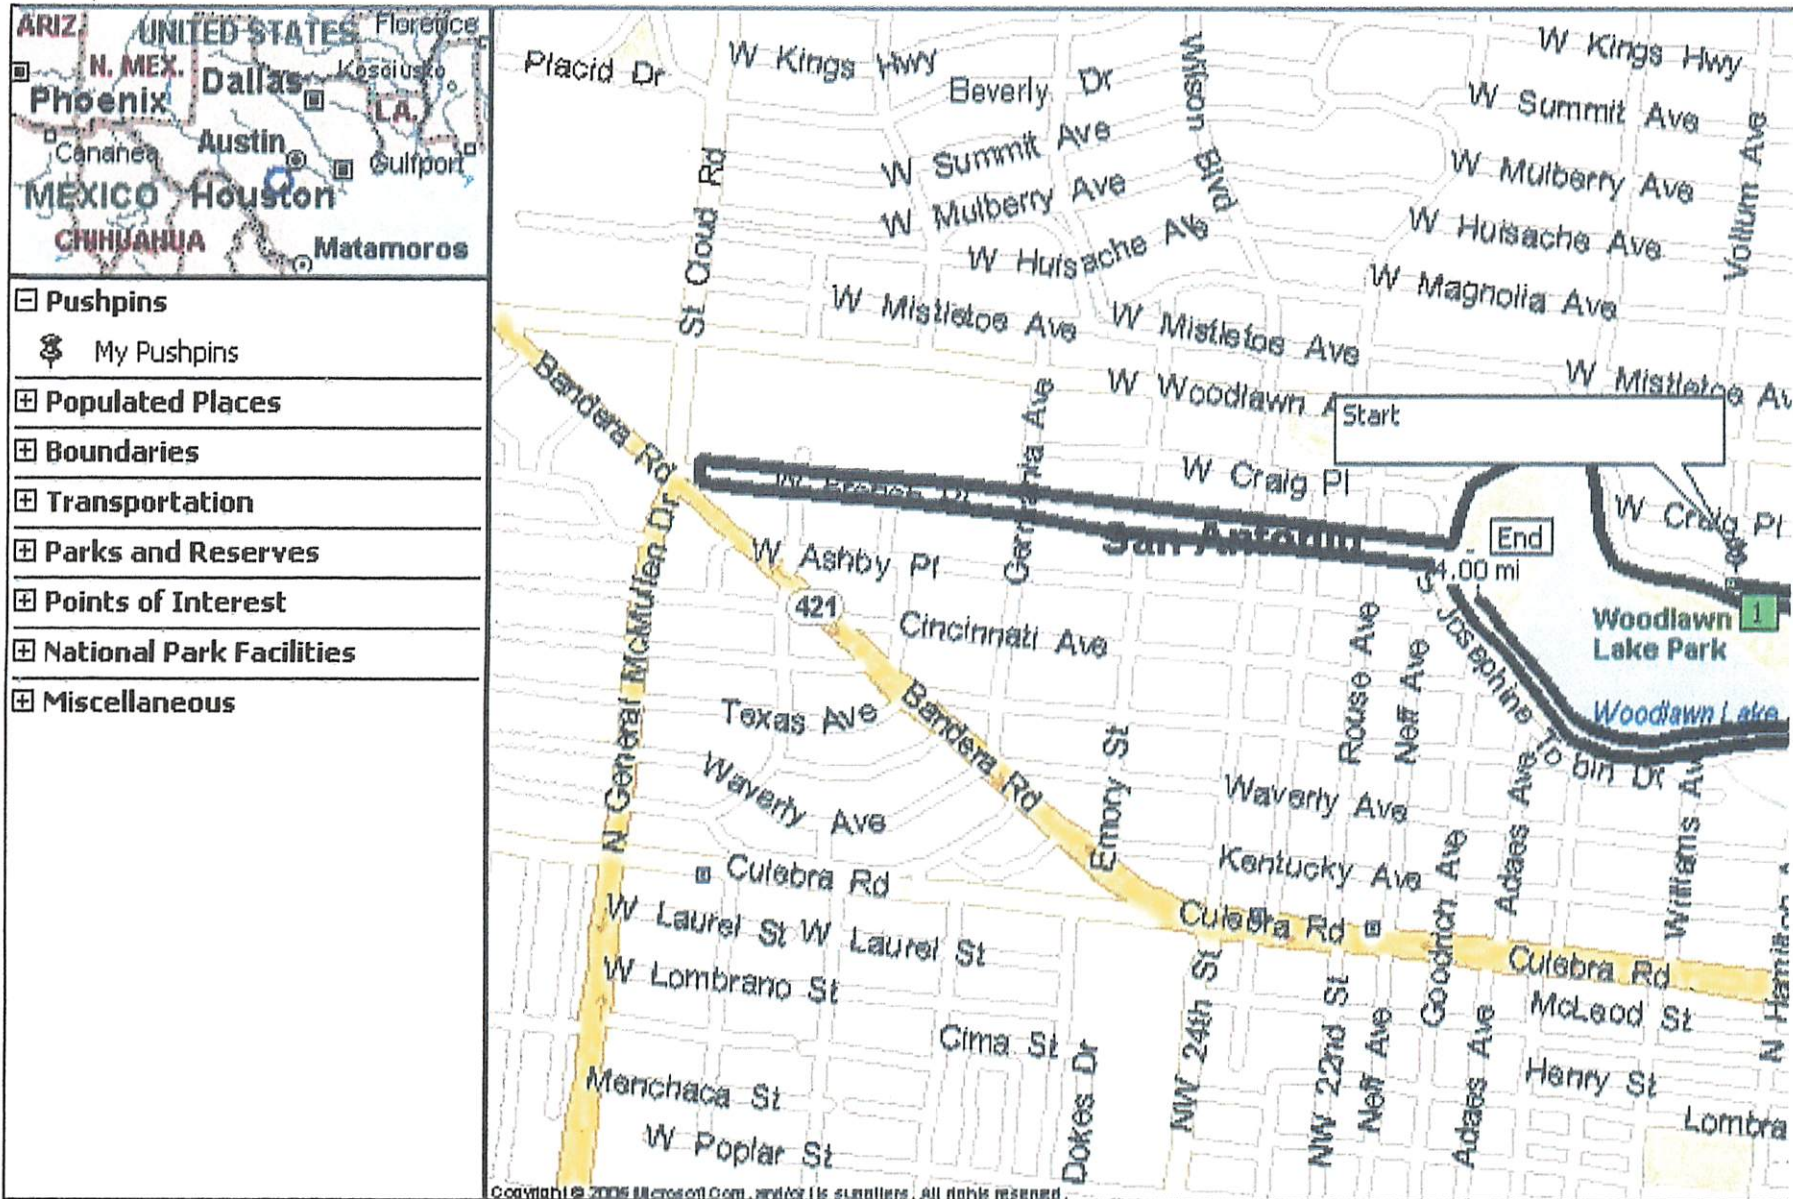

The finish (#2) is on the sidewalk near the south entrance to the lake parking lot.

The route crosses approximately 12 intersections.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this community effort.

Feel free to call or e-mail me if you have any questions, otherwise I look forward to your most timely correspondence.
