~~PROPOSED~~ JUDGMENT

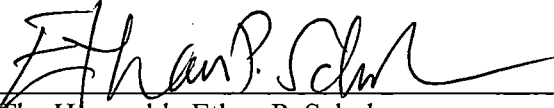

1 On December 26, 2019, Contestant Michael Denny ("Contestant") filed a Statement of 2 Election Contest against Respondents John Arntz, in his official capacity as Director of the 3 Department of Elections for the City and County of San Francisco, and Dennis Herrera, in his official
4 capacity as City Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco. In his Statement of Election
5 Contest, he requested that Court, pursuant to Division 16 of the California Elections Code, issue an 6 order to set aside Proposition A, a proposition passed by San Francisco voters in November 2019 to 7 authorize the issuance of $600 million in general obligation bonds to finance the construction,
8 development, acquisition, improvement, rehabilitation, preservation, and repair of affordable housing
9 improvements, and related costs necessary or convenient for the foregoing purpose.

10 On February 5, 2020, the Court entered an Order Dismissing Contestant's Statement of 11 Election Contest. With respect to Contestant's first, second, third, fifth, and seventh contest grounds,
12 the Court found that Contestant could not maintain a statutory election contest under Elections Code §
13 16100 on any basis alleged therein. With respect to Contestant's fourth contest ground, the Court
14 found that Contestant failed to show that Proposition A violates Article XIII A, § 1(b)(2) of the 15 California Constitution. With respect to Contestant's sixth contest ground, the Court found the claim
16 was barred under the doctrine of res judicata.

17 Accordingly, this Court ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES as follows:

- 18 1. Contestant take nothing from his Statement of Election Contest.
- 19 2. Judgment shall be entered in favor of Respondents John Arntz, in his official capacity
20 as Director of the Department of Elections for the City and County of San Francisco, and Dennis J.
21 Herrera, in his official capacity as City Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco.

22 Dated: Feb. 5, 2020
