REQUEST TO DEPUBLISH AND RECONSIDER

REQUEST TO DEPUBLISH AND RECONSIDER
CASE NO. A158029

This letter serves two purposes. Appellant requests that this honorable court:

1. Depublish the opinion in A158029,
2. Reconsider its decision in A158029 based on (a) bias in fact demonstrated toward the Appellant, (b) lack of jurisdiction, (c) flagrant violation of the standard of review on a demurrer, (d) gross error in the applicability of the Code of Civil Procedure ("CCP") to an election contest special proceeding, (e) gross error in applying the rules of statutory interpretation, and effectively overruling, but slyly, 170 years of election contest special proceeding statutes (Division 16 of the Elections Code, "Division 16") and court opinions (combined, "Election Contest Law") by creating new law that overrides the statutory scheme for election contests set out by the legislature and extinguishes the remedy provided therein, thereby giving government explicit immunity from violation of election law with respect to measures, that, in toto, goes well beyond the "mere appearance of impropriety or bias," and,
3. Assign a different panel of honorable judges to the requests for depublication and reconsideration.

Preliminary

Exhibits

Appellant has provided the following exhibits to provide the court with materials near at hand so as to avoid the costly research of looking up materials that Appellant refers to in this letter.

Exhibit A: History and Derivation of ELEC 16100

Exhibit B: 1939 (First) Elections Code, Division 10

Exhibit C: 1872 Code of Civil Procedure, Election Contest Special Proceedings

Exhibit D: Local Measure Ballot Statements Since AB-195

Professional Conduct

Counsel has an obligation under the California Rules of Professional Conduct to disclose adverse legal authority for its positions.

Rule 3.3 Candor Toward the Tribunal*

(a) A lawyer shall not:

(2) fail to disclose to the tribunal* legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction known* to the lawyer to be directly adverse to the position of the client and not disclosed by opposing counsel, or knowingly* misquote to a tribunal* the language of a book, statute, decision or other authority;

It's clear from its dismissal of every prayer and legal argument in both briefs that this honorable court does not consider an unrepresented party to be "opposing counsel." From the tenor of Rule 3.3, with respect to Appellant, Appellant does not read that Rule 3.3 as treating a party representing himself as "opposing counsel." Since no adverse legal authority has been disclosed by "opposing counsel," Counsel cannot avoid the duty imposed on it by Rule 3.3.

The "knowingly" part may present an issue, unless Counsel is willfully ignorant or just plain stupid. Counsel's brief continues its trial court presentation focusing solely on dismissal, by any means necessary, as discussed below in its purported demurrer.

Appellant will further discuss below Counsel's duty under Rule 3.3 to disclose adverse legal authority, with respect to its selective, out-of-context use of dicta in Friends of Sierra Madre and elsewhere.

In any case, Counsel doesn't acknowledge even the possibility that its unique and unauthorized use of a CCP demurrer and use of theories of grounds for demurrers outside those authorized by even the CCP are beyond the jurisdiction of both the trial court and this honorable court. Does Counsel even mention ELEC 16403? No. Does this honorable court mention it? Of course, not. It doesn't fit the agenda.

A. Bias in Fact

Since A160234 and this case have become effectively intertwined, Appellant also notes that this honorable court, in Counsel's request for preference in A160234, prejudged Appellant's potential request for changing the briefing schedule by peremptorily denying it. That is prejudice by definition.

Appellant also notes, for the record, that this honorable court granted Counsel's request for publication in A158029 immediately after Appellant requested a schedule change based on lack of fundamental fairness.

Finally, Appellant notes that the basis Counsel used for publication was issues of a continuing nature that are likely to avoid appellate review. Yet, in its opinion, this honorable court summarily dismissed every single one of those issues of a continuing nature that are likely to avoid appellate review raised by Appellant. A double standard is a clear example of much more than even the appearance of bias, but of actual bias favoring a governmental party against a private party.

Additional instances of bias are noted throughout when discussing this honorable court's opinion in A158029.

B. Error Due to Lack of Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction is a powerful concept that Appellant is certain this honorable court understands. Unlike almost all other legal matters, "Jurisdictional issues are never waived and may be raised at any time." Briggs v. Resolution Remedies (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 1395. Nevertheless, Appellant challenged the jurisdiction of the trial court to consider a demurrer. The trial court's jurisdiction over an election contest special proceeding, the subject matter, does not derive from its common law or equity jurisdiction or the CCP. Its only jurisdiction lies in Election Contest Law. Election Contest Law limits its jurisdiction, exclusively, to the rules set out by the legislature. It's all in Appellant's briefs, if this honorable court cares to read it.

The trial court pointed to no Election Contest Law that permits its consideration of a CCP demurrer. When Appellant objected at the very first hearing after refusing to consent to the meet and confer provision of the CCP demurrer, all the trial court could say was, "I disagree." That's not law, that's lawlessness and contempt for the higher court opinions the trial court is duty-bound to follow. It set the tone for everything that followed.

"Lack of jurisdiction in its most fundamental or strict sense means an entire absence of power to hear or determine the case, an absence of authority over the subject matter or the parties." Abelleira v. District Court of Appeal (1941) 17 Cal.2d 280

"The adequacy of the court's subject matter jurisdiction must be addressed whenever that issue comes to the court's attention." Keiffer v. Bechtel Corp. (1998) 65 Cal.App.4th 893.

The trial court never addressed the challenge to its jurisdiction, nor did this honorable court address jurisdiction which Appellant raised again in our opening brief.

As explained in the demurrer analysis below, neither the trial court nor this honorable court had jurisdiction to consider a CCP demurrer under Election Contest Law. Exclusive and limited jurisdiction is granted to the courts only by the legislative enactment of the election contest special proceeding of Division 16.

Had the trial court determined that Appellant had filed a civil action (CCP 25), and not an election contest special proceeding (ELEC 16400), its only authorized action would have been to dismiss it for lack of jurisdiction. Neither the trial court nor this honorable court can have it both ways. (But see Appellant's commentary on Friends of Sierra Madre, below, for an alternative that would have excluded dismissal.)

As the trial court had no jurisdiction to consider the purported demurrer, its ruling is void. This honorable court has no jurisdiction to affirm a void act of the trial court, nor does it have its own jurisdiction to consider a CCP demurrer on its own whim. Election Contest Law prohibits it.

At a minimum, this honorable court's only authority with respect to the CCP demurrer was to vacate the trial court's order granting it for lack of jurisdiction.

C. Error in Analysis of Demurrer

In order to rule on the demurrer, this honorable court first had to determine that Appellant had not filed an election contest special proceeding. In order to rule that Appellant had not filed an election contest special proceeding, this honorable court had to ignore the statement of contest that Appellant did file, which clearly laid out all the elements of a statement of contest under ELEC 16400 -- strike one. That is circular reasoning and a violation of the long standing standard of review for demurrers.

Counsel never made the claim that Appellant had not filed an election contest special proceeding in the trial court. As this honorable court cannot rule on an issue that was not raised below -- strike two.

None of Counsel's objections were based on facts, but based on Counsel's own perverted imagination of the law as, in its view, it should be, none of which were grounds for a demurrer -- strike three.

This honorable court, like the trial court, had no jurisdiction to consider a CCP demurrer. That makes both the trial court's ruling and this honorable court's ruling void ab initio. Appellant raised jurisdiction. This honorable court conveniently ignored it, again demonstrating actual bias toward Appellant.

D. Gross Error in Applying CCP Rules to Election Contest Special Proceedings

Part 2 of the CCP is entitled "OF CIVIL ACTIONS." Appellant recognizes the well-known rule of statutory construction that titles in codes are not law. However, a dichotomy is demonstrated by the title of Part 3, "OF SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS OF A CIVIL NATURE." This was the erstwhile, albeit temporary, location of rules for election contest special proceedings, CCP 1111 through CCP 1127, ("Contest Rules"), which sections were repealed in 1939, renumbered and reorganized, and moved to where they had been in 1850, before the code commissioners messed up, in election law.

Perhaps that is just another clue, if over 100 years of supreme court opinions are not sufficient for this honorable court, that nothing in Part 2 of the CCP is applicable to an election contest special proceeding.

But rather than deal with the clear and unambiguous statement of contest that was filed, the county trial court system and now this honorable court completely ignored the legislative directives of the Contest Rules out of hand, as if they don't exist. That's a violation of Appellant's fundamental right to due process.

For the sake of argument, let's say that Article 1 of Chapter 3 of Title 6 of Part 2 of the CCP has some relevance. The first sentence of CCP 430.10 should quickly disabuse this honorable court of that idea.

The party against whom a complaint or cross-complaint has been filed may object, by demurrer or answer as provided in Section 430.30, to the pleading on any one or more of the following grounds:

Notice "a complaint or cross-complaint?" Appellant filed a statement of contest under ELEC 16400, which is neither of those. The fact that the filing clerks of the trial court, from the chief clerk down, are ignorant of election contest special proceedings and refused to file the statement of contest without the term complaint or petition in the caption does not counteract the substance of the statement of contest that Appellant filed.

Just for fun, let's look at the nine grounds that are the basis of a demurrer under CCP 430.10. (a) Lack of subject matter jurisdiction? True, if filed as a civil action; Division 16 provides exclusive jurisdiction as a special proceeding. (b) Standing? Not asserted. (c) Another action pending? Not asserted. (d) Misjoinder? Not asserted. (e) No cause of action? True, as a civil action or at common law. That's why Division 16 exists. (f) Uncertain, ambiguous, or unintelligible? Not asserted. (g) Contract? Not asserted. (h) and (i) No certificate? Not asserted.

So, what authorized ground did Counsel raise under CCP 430.10? None. Yet, this honorable court completely overlooked that and the limited statutory scope of CCP 430.10 as a response to "a complaint or cross-complaint."

Then, of course, there is the standard of review for an appeal from a demurrer, again, just for the sake of argument. This honorable court stated it in its opinion, citing other opinions, and then promptly ignored the standard of review.

This honorable court created new judge-made law out of whole cloth in order to find justification for its predetermined conclusion and lack of analysis. And it did that in the face of the legislative presumption against dismissal of election contest special proceedings in ELEC 16403.

This honorable court had to bootstrap its way in the manner of a circular firing squad by first not taking the statement of contest as a fact, at its face value, before it could apply CCP procedures and then using those CCP procedures, however irrelevant, to affirm the trial court's equally circular order of dismissal.

This honorable court then changed the statement of contest grounds to something other than what they were.

If CCP demurrers are not governed by the CCP, then anyone can raise anything in a demurrer. The question then becomes why, when the government is the defendant, does this honorable court look the other way and not strictly apply the CCP, while denying the same privilege to private defendants? Another example of implicit bias.

The supreme court and courts of appeal have never overturned any of the opinions that prohibit applying CCP rules to election contest special proceedings. Both the trial court and this honorable court are bound by those opinions.

This honorable court has, in effect, but again slyly, overturned over a hundred years of Contest Rules, without having the chutzpah to say that that's what it was doing.

E. Error in Statutory Interpretation

But the coup de grace was when this honorable court ignored all the long-standing rules of statutory interpretation to determine that a word defined in one context applied in another context, without even mention or consideration of the effect of that interpretation on the statutory scheme defined by Division 16 and more than 100 years of Election Contest Law that have permitted non-candidates to be defendants in election contest special proceedings. (That will be discussed in the history of the legislative acts, below.)

While it is true that not every election contest will succeed, such as was the case in Rideout v. City of Los Angeles, there is no Election Contest Law that provides for the dismissal an election contest special proceeding for any of the reasons cited by Counsel or this honorable court.

Neither Counsel nor this honorable court have been able to cite a single statute, since election contest special proceedings are completely statutory, that bars the contest of a measure election for any extraneous reason, like exhaustion of remedies, which can only be applied to civil actions. Similarly, neither Counsel nor this honorable court have been able to cite a single opinion that allows any of the CCP rules in the context of an election contest. In fact, ALL published opinions are exactly to the contrary, from the supreme court on down. Similarly, neither Counsel nor this honorable court have been able to cite any Election Contest Law that allows an election contest special proceeding to be dismissed where statutory grounds, no matter how much both Counsel and this honorable court might cringe at the possibility, are clearly and plainly stated.

E. 1. ELEC 16002: A Red Herring of the First Degree

This honorable court either fell for Counsel's lies or it was the only thing that this honorable court could use to justify its predetermination to affirm the illegal demurrer.

16002. When used in this division, "contestant" means any person initiating an election contest. "Defendant" means that person whose election or nomination is contested or those persons receiving an equal and highest number of votes, other than the contestant, where, in other than primary elections, the body canvassing the returns declares that no one person has received the highest number of votes for the contested office.

When this definition was added to the Code in 1939 (see Exhibit B), it was addressing a specific situation that the legislature added as part of the incorporation of Stats. 1913, Ch. 690, Sec. 28 ("Sec. 28") dealing with contests in primary elections. The legislature did not change a single word in any of the other provisions of, at that time, the CCP sections 1111 to 1127, that were simply moved into Chapter 2 of Division 10 of the very first Elections Code.

Let's look closely at the definition on which Counsel and this lemming-like court hoists with its own petard.

There are actually two separate definitions in two separate sentences in ELEC 16002.

Let's look at the first definition in the first sentence.

"When used in this division, "contestant" means any person initiating an election contest."

This sentence has a conditional clause "When used in this division." This is a common practice in legislative acts when the legislature wants to apply a definition to more than the section in which the definition appears.

It's clear that the straightforward definition applies to any person who initiates an election contest. But even this clarity is subject to other provisions of Division 16. For example, Notably, the second definition does not lead with the "When used in this division" language. Counsel clearly misled the court, but this honorable court should have been smart enough to see the distinction between the two definitions immediately. This is why the court earns the big bucks, no?

On its face, then the definition of "defendant" does NOT apply to "this division." The court simply ignores this, demonstrating its prejudgment of this case and endemic bias. There's only 65 words and two sentences in ELEC 16002. Anyone reading the ELEC 16002 would have to read the first simple, 13-word sentence, before reading the complex multi-clause, 52-word second sentence.

"Defendant" means that person whose election or nomination is contested or those persons receiving an equal and highest number of votes, other than the contestant, where, in other than primary elections, the body canvassing the returns declares that no one person has received the highest number of votes for the contested office.

One can only surmise that the court had already made up its mind and to hell with following the rules of statutory construction. The end justifies the means is not a principle of law.

Based on the extraordinary dismissiveness that this honorable court has demonstrated toward the law and the blatant bias and prejudice toward the Appellant, any opinion that does not recognize the statutes that the legislature had promulgated "to prohibit conduct that affects elections" and 170 years of Supreme Court rulings on procedure and law in election contests is going to move to the next level.

The second definition even refers to "primary elections" explicitly as well as "nomination" and "contested office." Contested offices only occur in candidate elections. Nominations only occur at primary elections. Measure elections are never primary elections.

Division 10 (1939) was comprised of four chapters, Chapter 1 (GENERAL PROVISIONS), Chapter 2 (CONTESTS AT GENERAL ELECTIONS), Chapter 3 (CONTESTING PRIMARY ELECTIONS), and Chapter 4 (TIE VOTES).

Chapter 1 was comprised entirely of two new sections (16001[8500][repealed] and 16002[8501]). Chapter 2 was derived entirely from CCP (1872) sections 1111 through 1127. See Exhibit C. Chapter 3 was derived entirely, except for two new sections (16440[8620], and 16460[8640]), from the 1309-word Sec. 28 addressing contests of nominations in a primary election. Stats. 1913, Ch. 690 was "An act to provide for and regulate primary elections ..."

Chapter 1 consists of four words or terms: "county clerk," "registrar of voters," "contestant," and "defendant." It will become clear, below, that all of these words or terms were added as a result of the incorporation of Sec. 28, i.e., Chapter 3.

Sec. 28 used "county clerk" 5 times, "registrar of voters" 1 time, "contestant" 2 times, and "defendant" 0 times. It used the word or term "contestee" 14 times for the other party.

Chapter 2 used "county clerk" 3 times, "registrar of voters" 0 times, "contestant" 5 times, and "defendant" 10 times. "Elector" was used 4 times.

Throughout sections 1111 through 1127 of the 1872 CCP, as amended at the time of the enacted of the 1939 Elections Code, used "county clerk" 4 times, "registrar of voters" 0 times, "contestant" 1 time, and "defendant" 1 time. Primarily the parties were described as persons with different characteristics. Specifically, the contestant was also referred to, more specifically as an "elector," 5 times.

In the entirety of Chapter 3, the word or term "contestee" is not used a single time, while the word or term "defendant" is used 27 times.

It's clear to anyone willing to examine these changes that all four of the new sections added to the 1939 Elections Code were added due to the incorporation of Sec. 28.

After direct legislation powers were given to the counties, cities, and the people in 1911, the courts, including the supreme court, heard many appeals of election contest special proceeding, including the leading case, Rideout v. City of Los Angeles.

Except for the newly written statutes for the 1939 Code in Chapter 1 (sections 16001[8500][repealed] and 16002[8501]) and Chapter 3 (sections 16440[8620], and 16460[8640]), all of Division 10 came from two sources. Sections 8511 through 8576 were the current versions of the 1872 CCP. Sections 8600 through 8656 (Chapter 3 of Division 10 (1939)) were derived from the 1309-word Sec. 28 addressing contests of nominations in a primary election.

Note that the 1850 statutes only used the word or term "defendant" once and didn't use the word or term "candidate" at all.

While CCP 1872 language was changed when it was reorganized in Chapter 2, ELEC 2 (1939) clearly states that these changes were just continuations of existing law.

The earliest opinion on an election contest special proceeding involving a measure that Appellant has found was McConoughey v. City of San Diego (1900) 128 Cal. 366 in which McConoughey challenged a local bond measure. While it wasn't successful, neither the trial court nor the supreme court, which was only appellate court authorized to hear election contest appeals at that time, found any problem with a non-candidate being a defendant.

While not as frequent as candidate contests, measure contests have been heard by the courts from as early as 1900, even before the constitutional change in 1911, and as late just days before A158029 was handed down by this honorable court in Vosburgh v. County of Fresno (September 9, 2020) F078081. (Yes, not all of them used subsection (c).) And guess what? None of those measure contests are captioned with a candidate's name. Are all these opinions wrong? Then have the guts to say so. This court has no authority to overturn more than 120 years of supreme court opinions, so it can't, with a straight face, overrule those opinions. It's only legitimate solution is to find in favor of Appellant and set the election aside. It would then be up to Counsel if it wants to brave a supreme court petition with its flimsy and misleading arguments.

Occam's Razor requires that the simplest of competing theories be preferred to the more complex or that explanations of unknown phenomena be sought first in terms of known quantities. What theory explains this honorable court's conclusion? A few pages of circular logic citing favorably every one of Counsel's positions while distinguishing, dismissing, and even omitting every one of Appellant's positions? Or that this honorable court (unknown phenomena) was predisposed, dare we say prejudiced, to hold against Appellant from the git-go. Bias, plain and simple.

As judges are fond of saying to individual defendants, no matter how deceptive it may be, "Ignorance of the law is no excuse." Is it only agencies of government who can be ignorant of the law?

F. Error in Citing Dicta from Opinions That Were Not Election Contest Special Proceedings

Although each citation supporting this honorable court's opinion is dicta from, in the main, petitions for writ of mandate and not election contest special proceedings, in the interest of time, Appellant will limit this discussion to the most salient citations.

Friends of Sierra Madre

One of the true absurdities that Counsel continues to espouse is the out-of-context citation to the opinion in Friends of Sierra Madre v. City of Sierra Madre.

The very first paragraph gives a good summary of what the case was about.

This case presents an issue important to local governments and those interested in historic preservation: whether an initiative ballot measure, generated by a city council rather than by voter petition, submitting to the voters an ordinance that removes a structure or structures from historic preservation status, is a project subject to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA; Pub. Resources Code, § 21000 et seq.).<sup>1</sup> We conclude that CEQA compliance is required when a project is proposed and placed on the ballot by a public agency. In so doing we reject defendants' argument that the trial court and, by implication, the appellate court, should not consider plaintiffs' claim that the results of the election at which the ordinance in dispute was adopted must be set aside because their challenge is not one permitted by Elections Code section 16100.

Aside: Appellant has always asserted, with respect to local measures, that all local measures are either initiatives or referendums regardless of their path to the ballot. Please note carefully the supreme court's recognition of that fact in the very first sentence of the opinion: "an initiative ballot measure, generated by a city council rather than by voter petition." The first, and perhaps only use of the ELEC 13119 (AB-195) predecessor occurred in Los Angeles County Superior Court case over Measure M in 2016. That judge's along with petitioner's counsel either laziness or stupidity, resulted in a ruling that focused on the word "initiative" in AB-195's predecessor. The judge was wrong, but petitioner's counsel didn't appeal, and thus AB-195 was passed as a "technical" correction to a statute that didn't need correcting, by a legislature that relied on an invalid statutory interpretation of ELEC 13119 (2015 version).

Did this honorable court read that last sentence in the opinion? City didn't want the courts to consider Friends argument that the election be set aside because a CEQA violation is not a recognized grounds under the rules for an election contest special proceeding.

This is further explained further in the VERY NEXT paragraph.

The Court of Appeal rejected the argument of the City of Sierra Madre that a postelection challenge to a local ordinance may not be made on grounds other than those specified by statute, concluding that it was free to address the merits of a claim that the ballot measure in issue here, City of Sierra Madre Ordinance No. I-97-1 (Ordinance No. I-97-1), was invalid because the city had not complied with CEQA before placing the measure on the ballot as a city-council-generated initiative.

Aside: Note again, "city-council-generated initiative."

WOW! Did the court grok that? City was arguing that the ONLY WAY to set aside an election was by using an election contest special proceeding. Friends used a writ of mandate. The court agreed that election contest special proceedings are not the ONLY WAY to set aside an election. The court confirmed that the election could be set aside by a writ of mandate claiming a violation of CEQA.

Just for kicks, let's examine that reasoning in the current context. Remember, Friends of Sierra Madre granted a postelection remedy (vitiating the election) despite the fact the same remedy was available before the election. Suppose that Appellant had actually filed a petition for a writ of mandate. Under the reasoning of Friends of Sierra Madre, the Defendants had "not complied with [ELEC 13119] before placing the measure on the ballot as a city-council-generated initiative." Just like the requirements of CEQA, the requirements of ELEC 13119 are mandatory, even after an election, the discussion of which this honorable court conspicuously, and apparently intentionally, omits from its opinion. Based on the Friends of Sierra Madre reasoning, since an election contest special proceeding is not the ONLY WAY to set aside a past election, the election challenged by Appellant should be set aside on that basis as well. So, the primary citation that both Counsel and this honorable court base their entire defense upon, would result in the same remedy whether Appellant had filed an election contest special proceeding or a petition for a writ of mandate. This further supports Appellant's assertion of actual bias by this honorable court.

Friends of Sierra Madre was not about an election contest special proceeding. It was about a writ of mandate. Friends never tried to use an election contest special proceeding. City tried to get the courts to agree that the ONLY WAY to set aside an election was through an election contest special proceeding. Friends succeeded. City's defense failed.

Neither the case nor the holding has ANYTHING to do with an election contest special proceeding.

Not being an election contest special proceeding, the opinion quoted one sentence of the quote from a previous opinion (Wilks v. Mouton) which in turn used only two sentences from its much earlier source, Rideout.

That second sentence in Wilks, quoting Rideout, omitted in Friends of Sierra Madre reads:

Accordingly, a distinction has been developed between mandatory and directory provisions in election laws; a violation of a mandatory provision vitiates the election, whereas a departure from a directory provision does not render the election void if there is a substantial observance of the law and no showing that the result of the election has been changed or the rights of the voters injuriously affected by the deviation.

Before this honorable court looks at Wilks, likely for the first time, and jumps for joy when it finds the following quote, which is not in Rideout, let's disabuse this honorable court of any thought that this contradicts or overrules any part of Rideout.

"Even mandatory provisions must be liberally construed to avoid thwarting the fair expression of popular will." Kenworthy v. Mast (1903) 141 Cal. 268

Kenworthy was a candidate election contest special proceeding in Mendocino county. The trial court rejected all the ballots from two precincts that opened a little more than two hours after they were required to do so by law. The opinion rejected the disenfranchisement of the two precincts because the activity complained of did not alter the "free and fair expression of the will of the voters" without evidence that voters were denied the privilege to vote because of the late opening time.

Kenworthy is one of a long line of election contest special proceeding cases where conduct that was mandatory before the election is considered directory after the election. This line of cases examines the nature of the violation in relation to whether it would affect the "free and fair expression of the will of the voters." As Rideout explains "where there are errors on the part of those intrusted with the preparation of ballots, the disenfranchisement of voters for these violations of the law over which they have no control would result in defeating the will of the people by technicalities, unless it appears that the mistakes in fact operated to prevent a free, fair and honest election." Rideout, in its comprehensive treatment of Election Contest Law, describes the issue in this way. "Whether or not a provision, the observance of which is not expressly declared by law to be essential to the validity of the election, is mandatory or merely directory, depends upon the character of the act prescribed. If the act enjoined goes to the substance or necessarily affects the merits or results of the election, it is mandatory; otherwise directory."

Candidate contests are choices among names of living people who are campaigning for an elective office. Measure contests are choices between Yes and No in answer to a question. As public opinion research firms and psychologists well know, the language used to ask the question, the ballot statement, has a direct effect on the answer.

Getting back to Friends of Sierra Madre, the opinion recognized that except for recounts, the unlawful conduct in the grounds goes "to the integrity of the elections process."

That the court's authority to invalidate an election is limited to the bases for contest specified in Elections Code section 16100 and that section is exclusive is strongly suggested by the nature of the grounds for contest therein enumerated. Apart from contests seeking a recount of ballots, all relate to conduct made unlawful by the Elections Code and all go to the integrity of the elections process.

The entire discussion of election contest special proceedings in Friends of Sierra Madre was to conclude that election contest special proceedings are limited to the grounds allowed by statute. Compliance with CEQA was not one of those grounds, therefore the court agreed that "this action is not a permissible election challenge."

Then, in the very next sentence the opinion, gets to the heart of the matter: "Although this action was not properly brought as an election contest, the use of a petition for writ of mandate is a proper procedure by which to challenge the validity of a statute or ordinance enacted without compliance with CEQA."

Neither Friends of Sierra Madre, nor any of the other opinions that Counsel cites are election contest special proceedings. All Friends of Sierra Madre held is that there are other reasons that may be used to set aside an election than those found in Division 16.

What can be more integral to the election process than the integrity of the ballot itself, not only its physical integrity, but the ballot statement printed on it? If the ballot statement is a partisan sales pitch (electioneering), then the free, fair, and pure will of the voters cannot be determined. A ballot statement that violates the laws against truth, impartiality, argumentativeness, and prejudice that favors one point of view subverts, by definition, the free, fair, and pure expression of the will of the people. That's what the Huntington Beach and McDonough opinions were about. Yet this honorable court dismisses the holdings and the reasoning of those courts examining the ballot statement because those petitioners had the financial resources and the legal muscle to force those cases through a trial court and an appeals court in, literally, a matter of days before an impending election. According to this honorable court, Huntington Beach and McDonough are only relevant when a ballot statement is considered before an election.

To claim that the ballot statement does not affect the outcome of an election undercuts the reason that every local government agency hires public research firms to test ballot statement language for its ability to influence voters to pass a measure. For those that don't use public moneys to pay for the research, they have a library of thousands of ballot statements from the past 40 years that are infused with language designed by others to pass measures.

Besides the statutory presumption (ELEC 16403) not to disfavor statements of contest, the supreme court admonishes the courts not to nitpick statements of contest.

In Minor v. Kidder (1872) 43 Cal. 229, was an election contest special proceeding where the contestant challenged the elections of several Solano county candidates because, in three precincts, more ballots were counted than there were voters registered. Among other things, the court considered the sufficiency of the statement of contest.

When such a statement [of contest] is presented by an elector to the tribunal whose duty it is to investigate its merits, it should not be received in a spirit of captiousness, nor put aside upon mere technical objections designed to defeat the very search after truth which the statute intended to invite.

The investigation proposed is one in which the public at large are deeply concerned. It necessarily involves a question of broader import than the mere individual claim of a designated person to enjoy the honors and emoluments of the particular office brought directly in contest. The inquiry must be as to whether or not the popular will in the selection of officers to administer the public affairs has been, in a given instance, or is about to be, defeated or thwarted by mistake happened or fraud concocted. It is, therefore, not an ordinary adversary proceeding, for, as against this high public interest concerned, there can be no recognized adversary.

Like the issue of fraudulent votes in Minor, this election contest special proceeding presents the issue of fraud on the ballot itself. "The inquiry must be as to whether or not the popular will ... has been ... defeated or thwarted by ... fraud concocted."

Of course, this honorable court could distinguish the opinion because it's a candidate and not a measure election, or because it was a vote counting case, or for any number of other reasons that may please this honorable court, or for no reason at all in order to arrive at its predetermined conclusion.

That's exactly what the Counsel's faux demurrer was designed to do; ignore the offenses against the elective franchise and defeat the contest on extraneous and spurious legal arguments.

It's hard to tell from this honorable court's opinion whether it rested its predetermined conclusion on an exhaustion of remedies theory or on an estoppel theory.

Bradley v. Perrodin

Nowhere in its entire opinion does this court mention Rideout or even the concept of mandatory and directory. Saying that Appellant "relies entirely" on Bradley is patently and factually false. Appellant clearly and specifically, relies primarily on Election Contest Law as defined by California and every other state and explained in Rideout. Bradley was an example. The complete omission of Appellant's discussion of Rideout from this honorable court's opinion along with a false assertion demonstrates further bias. One wonders if this honorable court gave Appellant the same consideration that it would lawyers and actually read the briefs. Then, of course, why does the opinion discuss any election contest special proceeding cases if it's not one?

Remember Rule 3.3? Counsel has an ethical obligation. It failed to meet it. This honorable court's omission of a discussion of Rideout in its opinion, as "directly adverse" to its opinion, is in the least, a confirmation of bias in fact.

The language that this honorable court characterizes as an admission is actually language from the opinion of the Florida Supreme Court in Wadhams v. Board of County Commissioners (1990) 567 So.2d 414, incorporating elements of ELEC 13119.

Here's the full quote from the statement of contest.

No one can say with any certainty what the will of the voters would have been if they had been given the whole truth, as mandated by the statutes, and had been presented with a ballot stating the chief purpose of the measure free from language that is untrue, misleading, partial and likely to create prejudice in favor of the measure.

Here's the full quote from the Wadhams opinion.

No one can say with any certainty what the vote of the electorate would have been if the voting public had been given the whole truth, as mandated by the statute, and had been told "the chief purpose of the measure." As this Court has previously stated: "[T]he voter should not be misled and . . . [should] have an opportunity to know and be on notice as to the proposition on which he is to cast his vote. . . . What the law requires is that the ballot be fair and advise the voter sufficiently to enable him intelligently to cast his ballot."

Wadhams was an election contest that set aside a ballot measure of Sarasota County. The opinion was none too kind to the county when it characterized the county's defense as: "The Board in effect argues that hoodwinking the voting public is permissible unless the action is challenged prior to the election." That's exactly what this honorable court and Counsel are arguing.

Unlike the Florida Supreme Court that found "Deception of the voting public is intolerable and should not be countenanced," this honorable court's opinion countenances local governing bodies that violate mandatory provisions of the Elections Code as long as they slip it past the unsuspecting voters during a ten day window, months before the election. On an equal protection basis alone, Appellant would argue that the preelection remedies provided by the Elections Code, if they existed with respect to the ballot statement, treat well-heeled petitioners, like those in Huntington Beach and McDonough differently than electors as a whole. But even more importantly, Defendants have an overriding duty to enforce the law to protect the ballot, lest every local measure become the subject of preelection challenges on a continuing basis. Why should the voters have to do the job that the Defendants swore an oath to perform? See Exhibit D for a glimpse into the scope of the corruption of the ballot in measure elections.

The court in Rideout, so that this honorable court doesn't have a conviction that Appellant cites the opinion of a well-respected court outside California, is in the same vein -- "a violation of a mandatory provision vitiates the election" without any evidence that the intentional deception and trickery (offense against the elective franchise) would have changed the results. That's the same reasoning in Bradley, where the court could not "say with any certainty what the will of the voters would have been if" an offense against the elective franchise had not been committed.

"The trial court properly annulled Irving's election under section 16100, subdivision (c) despite the lack of evidence that Irving's offenses changed the outcome of the election."

Bradley also cited Gooch and Canales approvingly.

To make it perfectly clear to this honorable court, Bradley, Gooch, Canales and others were used as an analogy for election contest special proceedings based on ELEC 16100(c).

In both Bradley and Gooch the elections were set aside without evidence that the offenses against the elective franchise changed the outcome of the elections, in conformity with the statement of the law in Rideout.

McKinney v. Superior Court

The opinion of this honorable court has a theme: Accept approvingly all of Counsel's citations from opinions that were not election contest special proceedings and distinguish and dismiss all of Appellant's citations from opinions that were election contest special proceedings.

Another such case is McKinney. Neither Counsel (Rule 3.3) nor this honorable court bothered to research (or intentional withheld such research) mention of McKinney in subsequent opinions. Had either bothered to do so, they would have found Cummings v. Stanley (2009) 177 Cal.App.4th 493.

Cummings, an election contest special proceeding, marginalizes the holding in McKinney to the obscurity it deserves. Specifically, that McKinney was not an election contest special proceeding AND that its facts were so obscure that there would likely never be another situation like it.

To further demonstrate this honorable court's bias in fact, McKinney involved a candidate election. Why didn't this honorable court treat it in the same dismissive fashion as all of Appellant's citations to actual, not fake, election contest special proceedings that involved candidates?

Cummings will be discussed further below (exhaustion of remedies) as it actually dismissed that theory as well.

G. Preelection Challenge (Exhaustion of Remedies or the Public Officials Can Hoodwink Voters Act of 2020)

Counsel and this honorable court do not refer to "exhaustion of remedies" per se. What they do is refer to preelection challenges. Appellant uses the term challenges rather than remedy because to call it a remedy flies in the face of all real-world common sense.

This honorable court never once in its opinion refers to the actual penal provisions of Division 18 that constitute the ground of "offense against the elective franchise." Those were ELEC 18401 and ELEC 18002. Appellant believes this is purposeful. There is a whole range of dates that might be described as preelection. Using the term preelection is so vague as to make it sound like an elector who had the temerity to ignore a preelection challenge would be guilty of laches. All of those dates are circumscribed by the filing deadline, 88 days before the election (E-88), and election day, (E-0). Of all those dates, only a maximum 10 days (E-88 to E-78) applies to anything other than arguments in favor or against and rebuttals to arguments in favor or against.

So, when Counsel and this honorable court talk about preelection challenges, they are talking about a window of 10 days to bring a challenge with an outside deadline for the challenge, including engaging counsel (a joke if there ever was one) and appeal, to be finally determined by the day the materials are printed, in general, approximately 30 days later. Can this honorable court comprehend the near impossibility of that ever happening, and the rarity of opinions such as Huntington Beach and McDonough to even exist.

So, what about the other 78 days before an election. There is NO provision for any preelection challenges in that entire period of time. If the elections official prints the wrong ballots or incomplete ballots, as Los Angeles County discovered in the middle February 2020, just days before the election March 3rd, there is no preelection challenge available.

In other words there is no preelection challenge available (excluding arguments) during a 78-day period before the election, where the elections official prints and circulates ballots that do not conform to the Elections Code. Prior to the printing and circulating, there was no offense.

Similarly, there is no preelection challenge available for many kinds of fraud connected with ballots or voters, even if it was discovered before the election.

Perhaps curiously, perhaps not, the opinion in Cummings discusses these preelection challenges in terms of exhaustion of remedies, a strictly (as shown below) administrative remedy designed, in great part, to cut down on the number of lawsuits being filed, arguably, prematurely. The concept is one that has been judicially created for the purpose of judicial economy.

Where in Election Contest Law has this theory ever been considered? Rule 3.3 rears its ugly head again.

Appellant hopes that he doesn't have to become an expert in administrative law in order to dispose of this theory. That's right, administrative law.

Appellant will rely primarily on the numerous cases cited in Cummings because Cummings was an actual election contest special proceeding and Appellant would hope that the court in that case would have been briefed on or researched any case where failure to bring an earlier lawsuit bars one from bringing a subsequent one.

Appellant doesn't recall Counsel citing any election contest special proceeding cases, like these, that actually made a ruling based on the theory of exhaustion of remedies. Rule 3.3?

All these cases have to do with the concept of having to exhaust administrative remedies before bringing a lawsuit. Mokler v. County of Orange (2007) 157 Cal.App.4th 121 [failure to exhaust her administrative remedies barred her from pursuing her retaliatory discharge claim]. Mission Housing Development Co. v. City and County of San Francisco (1997) 59 Cal.App.4th 55 [Taxpayers failed to exhaust their administrative remedies before filing this court action]. Azusa Land Reclamation Co. v. Main San Gabriel Basin Watermaster (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 1165 [failed to exhaust their administrative remedies by raising CEQA issues before the Regional Board]. Consumers Union of U.S., Inc. v. Alta-Dena Certified Dairy (1992) 4 Cal.App.4th 963 [Consumers failed to exhaust its administrative remedies prior to filing suit]. Wallis v. Farmers Group, Inc. (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 718 [doctrine of exhaustion of administrative remedies (the termination review board procedure) to bar Marcia's action]. Sacramento County Deputy Sheriffs' Assn. v. County of Sacramento (1990) 220 Cal.App.3d 280 [Deputies failed to exhaust their administrative remedies]. Doster v. County of San Diego (1988) 203 Cal.App.3d 257 [judicial relief was barred because Doster failed to exhaust his administrative remedies].

Green v. City of Oceanside (1987) 194 Cal.App.3d 212 [court lacked jurisdiction because Green failed to exhaust his administrative remedies].

The bottom line is that there is NO Election Contest Law that requires a contestant to bring an earlier civil action. Furthermore, there is no Election Contest Law that bars an election contest special proceeding for failure to bring a preelection lawsuit.

Counsel and this honorable court focus on conflating the long line of opinions in Election Contest Law regarding technical defects or election official procedural defects that do not result in contestants successfully setting aside elections with a judge-made rule. What Election Contest Law holds is that many election contest special proceedings have failed. The likelihood of failure is not a bar. In fact, as explained in Rideout, even technical defects have the potential to succeed in setting aside an election under the proper circumstances.

For a relevant example for ballot defects, the Elections Code requires that ballot statements are followed by voting targets next to the words Yes and No and that those voting targets be on separate lines. What would happen if the words and voting targets were printed on the same line -- YES [ ] NO [ ]? Might that defect cause some voters to mark the first voting target while intending to vote NO? What would happen if the voting target and candidate name for a candidate for one office were inadvertently printed in the list of candidates for the next office on the ballot? That would likely cause both elections to be set aside, even though it was a technical error. No one can possibly know what will be printed on the ballot until the ballot is actually printed. "No one can say with any certainty what the vote of the electorate would have been" for each contest if the ballot had been printed in accordance with the law, specifically, ELEC 13119, ELEC 13247, ELEC 9051, and ELEC 10403.

ELEC 13204 requires this instruction to be printed on the ballot with respect to measures: "To vote on any measure, mark the voting target next to the word "Yes" or after the word "No." What if the voting target is before the word "No?" What if a voting target for one of the choices is omitted completely? Technical error? Or grounds to set aside an election?

None of these examples are this election contest special proceeding. They are examples to demonstrate that every election contest special proceeding should have its day in court. Contestants who read Election Contest Law will determine whether it is worth their time, money, and effort to proceed with technical issues that are similar to issues that have been decided in previous opinions. Foreclosing the possibility that an election contest special proceeding is heard is new law, created out of whole cloth by this honorable court. It, in effect, forecloses the possibility of even new technical issues ever seeing review. With respect to local measures, it forecloses the possibility of any election being contested, except by ballot counting.

But here's the thing. ELEC 13247 which mandates the rules for both the ballot statement language and the word count of ALL measures is in Chapter 3 of Division 13 of the Elections Code. ELEC 13200, the first section of Chapter 3, states: "Ballots not printed in accordance with this chapter shall not be cast nor counted at any election." Under that mandate, which is clearly a postelection mandate, no ballots, encompassing all votes, not just the vote for the contested measure, are prohibited from being counted. That means no elections on the consolidated (one ballot) San Francisco ballot in November 2018 were decided because all resulted in a zero to zero tie.

Conclusion

This honorable court has omitted every substantive argument that Appellant has made in our briefs. Appellant doesn't believe in coincidences.

This opinion is riddled with error and, apparently intentional, omission, and has reached a conclusion on all salient issues that flies in the face of Election Contest Law that has not substantively changed for 170 years.

Among the several supreme court decisions that this opinion overrules is, specifically, Canales, where the supreme court specifically found "no reason appears why subdivision (c) should not also apply to [measure] elections." Despite this honorable court's attempt to derogate Canales as using a "prior version," ELEC 1610020021 has not substantively changed since 1872. See Exhibit A.

The decision of this honorable court confounds the legislature's constitutional duty to "prohibit improper practices that affect elections" (Article II, Sec. 4). It legitimizes the practices developed by the public-private cartel to intentionally violate the Elections Code to its financial and power-hungry advantage, as evidenced by all of the 1574 local measures placed on ballots since 2017. See Exhibit D.

This honorable court should do what the law requires, depublish its opinion, recuse itself, and have fresh eyes reconsider the case, no matter how politically uncomfortable the lawful result.

Whether this honorable wishes to continue with its tortured reasoning and clear error, the ultimate holding can only be to set aside the election. Both under Election Contest Law and under the reasoning in Friends of Sierra Madre, the law requires that the election be vitiated.

EXHIBIT A

History and Derivation of ELEC 16100

What is now ELEC 16100 was first enacted in 1850. It has had very few amendments, primarily adding, but not changing, grounds.

Below are each legislative act with respect to the statutes from 1850 to date. Substantive changes are described briefly in the parenthetical note after each reorganization or amendment.

1850 Stats. 1850, Ch. 38, Art. 6

§ 51. Any elector of the proper county may contest the right of any person declared duly elected to an office to be exercised in and for such county; and, also, any elector of a township may contest the right of any person declared duly elected to any office, in and for such township, for any of the following causes:--

1st. For mal-conduct on the part of the Board of Judges, or any member thereof.

2d. When the person whose right to the office is contested was not at the time of the election eligible to such office.

3d. When the person whose right is contested shall have been, previous to such election, convicted of an infamous crime by any Court of competent jurisdiction, such conviction not having been reversed, nor such person relieved from the legal infamy of such conviction.

4th. When the person whose right is contested, has given to any Elector or Inspector, Judge or Clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or shall have offered any such bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election.

5th. On account of illegal votes.

1872 Code of Civil Procedure (not chaptered, removed subsection 3, and renumber subsections 4 and 5 to 3 and 4; added reference to "offense against the elective franchise" in subsection 3)

1111. Any elector of the county may contest the right of any person declared elected to an office to be exercised in and for such county; and, also, any elector of a township may contest the right of any person declared duly elected to any office, in and for such township, for any of the following causes:

First--For malconduct on the part of the Board of Judges, or any member thereof.

Second--When the person whose right to the office is contested was not at the time of the election eligible to such office.

Third--When the person whose right is contested, has given to any Elector or Inspector,

Judge or Clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or has offered any such bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Title Four, Part One, of the Penal Code.

Fourth--On account of illegal votes.

1876 Stats. 1876, Ch. 186 (changed references to county and township to "county, city and county, city, or of any political subdivision" in heading)

1111. Any elector of a county, city and county, city, or of any political subdivision of either, may contest the right of any person declared elected to an office to be exercised therein, for any of the following causes:

First--For malconduct on the part of the Board of Judges, or any member thereof.

Second--When the person whose right to the office is contested was not, at the time of the election, eligible to such office.

Third--When the person whose right is contested has given to any elector or Inspector, Judge, or Clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or has offered any such bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Title Four, Part One, of the Penal Code.

Fourth--On account of illegal votes.

1935 Stats. 1935, Ch. 406 (added subsection 5)

1111. Any elector of a county, city and county, city, or of any political subdivision of either, may contest the right of any person declared elected to an office to be exercised therein, for any of the following causes:

1. For malconduct on the part of the board of judges, or any member thereof.

2. When the person whose right to the office is contested was not, at the time of the election, eligible to such office.

3. When the person whose right is contested has given to any elector or inspector, judge, or clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or has offered any such bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Title IV, Part I, of the Penal Code.

4. On account of illegal votes.

5. On account of errors of the election board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, sufficient to change the result of the election as to such person.

1939 Stats. 1939, Ch. 26

2. The provisions of this code, in so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutory provisions relating to the same subject matter, shall be construed as restatements and continuations, and not as new enactments.

1939 Stats. 1939, Ch. 26 (new code, in general, reworded and modernized sections, no substantive changes; heading paragraph reworded to "any election"; changed "person whose right ..." to "defendant" in subsection c; changed reference to renumbered penal sections in subsection c)

8511. Any elector of a county, city, or of any political subdivision of either, may contest any election held therein, for any of the following causes:

(a) That the precinct board or any member thereof was guilty of malconduct.

(b) That the person who has been declared elected to an office was not, at the time of the election, eligible to that office.

(c) That the defendant has given to any elector or inspector, judge, or clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or has offered any bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Chapter 8, Division VII or Division XIV, of this code.

(d) That illegal votes were cast.

(e) That the precinct board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.

1961 Stats. 1961, Ch. 23

2. The provisions of this code, insofar as they are substantially the same as existing statutory provisions relating to the same subject matter, shall be construed as restatements and continuations, and not as new enactments.

1961 Stats. 1961, Ch. 23 (new code, replaced reference to "inspection, judge, or clerk" with "member of a precinct board" in subsection c; changed reference to renumbered penal sections in subsection c)

20021. Any elector of a county, city, or of any political subdivision of either may contest any election held therein, for any of the following causes:

(a) That the precinct board or any member thereof was guilty of malconduct.

(b) That the person who has been declared elected to an office was not, at the time of the election, eligible to that office.

(c) That the defendant has given to any elector or member of a precinct board any bribe or reward, or has offered any bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Chapter 3 (commencing at Section 12000) of Division 8 or Division 15, of this code.

(d) That illegal votes were cast.

(e) That the precinct board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.

1971 Stats. 1971, Ch. 1218 (added subsection f)

20021. Any elector of a county, city, or of any political subdivision of either may contest any election held therein, for any of the following causes:

- (a) That the precinct board or any member thereof was guilty of malconduct.
- (b) That the person who has been declared elected to an office was not, at the time of the election, eligible to that office.
- (c) That the defendant has given to any elector or member of a precinct board any bribe or reward, or has offered any bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Chapter 3 (commencing at Section 12000) of Division 8 or Division 15, of this code.
- (d) That illegal votes were cast.
- (e) That the precinct board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.
- (f) That there was an error in the vote counting programs or summation of ballot counts.

1976 Stats. 1976, Ch. 1438 (changed reference to renumbered penal sections in subsection c)

20021. Any elector of a county, city, or of any political subdivision of either may contest any election held therein, for any of the following causes:

- (a) That the precinct board or any member thereof was guilty of malconduct.
- (b) That the person who has been declared elected to an office was not, at the time of the election, eligible to that office.
- (c) That the defendant has given to any elector or member of a precinct board any bribe or reward, or has offered any bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Division 17 (commencing with Section 29100).
- (d) That illegal votes were cast.
- (e) That the precinct board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.
- (f) That there was an error in the vote-counting programs or summation of ballot counts.

1994 Stats. 1994, Ch. 920

2. The provisions of this code, insofar as they are substantially the same as existing statutory provisions relating to the same subject matter, shall be construed as restatements and continuations, and not as new enactments.

1994 Stats. 1994, Ch.920 (new code, changed reference to renumbered penal division in subsection c)

16100. Any elector of a county, city, or of any political subdivision of either may contest any election held therein, for any of the following causes:

- (a) That the precinct board or any member thereof was guilty of malconduct.
- (b) That the person who has been declared elected to an office was not, at the time of the election, eligible to that office.

(c) That the defendant has given to any elector or member of a precinct board any bribe or reward, or has offered any bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Division 18 (commencing with Section 18000).

(d) That illegal votes were cast.

(e) That the precinct board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.

(f) That there was an error in the vote-counting programs or summation of ballot counts.

2003 Stats. 2002, Ch. 173 (added subsection e, renumbered e to f, and f to g)

16100. Any elector of a county, city, or of any political subdivision of either may contest any election held therein, for any of the following causes:

(a) That the precinct board or any member thereof was guilty of malconduct.

(b) That the person who has been declared elected to an office was not, at the time of the election, eligible to that office.

(c) That the defendant has given to any elector or member of a precinct board any bribe or reward, or has offered any bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Division 18 (commencing with Section 18000).

(d) That illegal votes were cast.

(e) That eligible voters who attempted to vote in accordance with the laws of the state were denied their right to vote.

(f) That the precinct board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.

(g) That there was an error in the vote-counting programs or summation of ballot counts.

Compare:

16101. Any candidate at a primary election may contest the right of another candidate to nomination to the same office by filing an affidavit alleging any of the following grounds, that:

(a) The defendant is not eligible to the office in dispute.

(b) The defendant has committed any offense against the elective franchise defined in Division 18 (commencing with Section 18000).

(c) A sufficient number of votes were illegal, fraudulent, forged, or otherwise improper, and that had those votes not been counted, the defendant would not have received as many votes as the contestant.

(d) Due to mistake, error, or misconduct the votes in any precinct were so incorrectly counted as to change the result.

EXHIBIT B

1939 (First) Elections Code, Division 10

In 1939, Division 10, was created with four chapters. Chapter 1 contained two new sections. The legislature created Chapter 2 (Contests at General Elections) by repealing, reorganizing, and moving CCP 1111 through CCP 1127 as continuations of existing law. The legislature created Chapter 3 (Contesting Primary Elections) repealing, reorganizing, and moving Stats. 1913, Ch. 690, Sec. 28 as continuations of existing law. Chapter 4 (Tie votes.) was added from the Political Code.

At the bottom of this exhibit is a table of derivation sources, as provided by the legislature in the supplemental materials to statutory enactments of 1939.

The material in this exhibit was taken directly from the published Statutes of 1939 and converted to searchable text by optical character recognition (OCR) and spell checking. It is still possible, however, that the OCR process resulted in some punctuation or word pattern that was not recognizable or not corrected.

DIVISION X. ELECTION CONTESTS. TIE VOTE.

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

8500. As used in this division, "county clerk" does not include "registrar of voters."

8501. When used in this division, "contestant" means any person initiating an election contest. "Defendant" means that person whose election or nomination is contested or those persons receiving an equal and highest number of votes, other than the contestant, where, in other than primary elections, the body canvassing the returns declares that no one person has received the highest number of votes for the contested office.

CHAPTER 2. CONTESTS AT GENERAL ELECTIONS.

Article 1. Grounds for Contest.

8511. Any elector of a county, city, or of any political subdivision of either, may contest any election held therein, for any of the following causes:

- (a) That the precinct board or any member thereof was guilty of malconduct.
- (b) That the person who has been declared elected to an office was not, at the time of the election, eligible to that office.
- (c) That the defendant has given to any elector or inspector, judge, or clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or has offered any bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Chapter 8, Division VII or Division XIV, of this code.

(d) That illegal votes were cast.

(e) That the precinct board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, made errors sufficient to change the result of the election as to any person who has been declared elected.

8512. No irregularity or improper conduct in the proceedings of the judges, or any of them, is such malconduct as avoids an election, unless the irregularity or improper conduct is such as to procure the defendant to be declared either elected or one of those receiving an equal and highest number of votes where no one person has received the highest number of votes, when he had not received that number of legal votes.

8513. When any election held for an office exercised in and for a county is contested on account of any malconduct on the part of the precinct board of any precinct, or any member thereof, the election shall not be annulled or set aside upon any proof thereof, unless the rejection of the vote of that precinct would change the result as to that office in the remaining vote of the county.

8514. An election shall not be set aside on account of illegal votes, unless it appear that a number of illegal votes has been given to the person whose right to the office is contested or who has been certified as having tied for first place, which, if taken from him, would reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of votes given to some other person for the same office, after deducting therefrom the illegal votes which may be shown to have been given to that other person.

Article 2. Procedure by Contestant.

8530. When an elector contests any election he shall file with the county clerk a written statement, setting forth specifically:

- (a) The name of the contestant, and that he is an elector of the district, county, or township, as the case may be, in which the contested election was held.
- (b) The name of the defendant.
- (c) The office.
- (d) The particular grounds of contest.

8531. The contestant shall verify the statement of contest, as provided by section 446 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and shall file it within the following times after the declaration of the result of the election by the body canvassing the returns thereof:

- (a) In cases other than cases of a tie, where the contest is brought on any of the grounds mentioned in subdivision (c) of section 8511, six months.
  - (b) In all cases of tie, twenty days.
  - (c) In all other cases, thirty days.
- (Amended by Stats. 1939, Ch. 1095.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION.]

8531. The contestant shall verify the statement of contest, as provided by section 446 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and shall file it within the following times after the declaration of the result of the election by the body canvassing the returns thereof:

(a) In cases other than cases of a tie, where the contest is brought on any of the grounds mentioned in subdivision (c) of section 8501, six months;

(b) In all cases of tie, twenty days;

(c) In all other cases, thirty days.

8532. When the reception of illegal votes is alleged as a cause of contest, it is sufficient to state generally that in one or more specified voting precincts illegal votes were given to the defendant, which, if taken from him, will reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of legal votes given to some other person for the same office.

Testimony shall not be received of any illegal votes, unless the contestant deliver to the defendant, at least three days before the trial, a written list of the number of illegal votes, and by whom given, which he intends to prove. No testimony can be received of any illegal votes except those which are specified in the list.

8533. A statement of the grounds of contest shall not be rejected, nor the proceedings dismissed by any court, for want of form, if the grounds of contest are alleged with such certainty as will advise the defendant of the particular proceeding or cause for which the election is contested.

Article 3. Procedure by County Clerk and Court.

8550. Within five days after the end of the time allowed for filing statements of contest the county clerk shall notify the superior court of the county of all statements filed. The court shall thereupon order a special session to be held, on some day to be named by it, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of its order.

8551. The clerk shall thereupon issue a citation for the defendant to appear at the time and place specified in the order, which citation shall be delivered to the sheriff, and served upon the party at least five days before the time so specified, either:

(a) Personally, or

(b) If the party can not be found, by leaving a copy at the house where he last resided.

8552. The clerk shall issue subpoenas for witnesses at the request of any party, which shall be served as other subpoenas. The superior court may issue attachments to compel the attendance of witnesses who have been subpoenaed to attend.

8553. The court shall meet at the time and place designated, to determine the contested election, and shall have all the powers necessary to the determination thereof. It may adjourn from day to day until the trial is ended, and may also continue the trial, before its commencement, for any time not exceeding twenty days, for good cause shown by any party upon affidavit, at the costs of the party applying for the continuance.

8554. At the trial the ballots shall be opened and a recount taken, in the presence of all the parties, of the votes cast for the various candidates in all contests where it appears from the statements filed that a recount is necessary for the proper determination of the contest.

8555. In the trial and determination of election contests, the court shall be governed by the rules of law and evidence governing the determination of questions of law and fact, so far as the same may be applicable. It may dismiss the proceedings if the statement of the cause of the contest is insufficient, or for want of prosecution.

8556. The court shall continue in special session to hear and determine all issues arising in contested elections. After hearing the proofs and allegations of the parties and within ten days after the submission thereof the court shall file its findings of fact and conclusions of law, and immediately thereafter shall pronounce judgment in the premises, either confirming or annulling and setting aside the election. The judgment shall be entered immediately thereafter.

8557. If in any election contest it appears that another person than the defendant has the highest number of legal votes, the court shall declare that person elected.

Article 4. Proceedings After Judgment.

8570. The person declared elected by the superior court is entitled to a certificate of election. If a certificate has not already been issued to him, the county clerk shall immediately make out and deliver to that person a certificate of election signed by him, and authenticated with the seal of the superior court.

8571. If the clerk has issued any certificate for the same office to any other person than the one declared elected by the court, such certificate is annulled by the judgment.

8572. If the proceedings under this chapter are dismissed for insufficiency, or for want of prosecution, or the election is by the court confirmed, judgment shall be rendered against the contestant, for costs, in favor of the defendant. If the election is annulled or set aside, judgment for costs shall be rendered against the defendant, in favor of the contestant

8573. Where two or more contested elections are joined for the purpose of recounting votes as in this chapter provided, the costs shall be apportioned among the parties in the discretion of the court.

8574. Primarily each party is liable for the costs created by himself, to the officers and witnesses entitled thereto, which may be collected in the same manner as similar costs are collected in other cases.

8575. Any party aggrieved by the judgement of the court may appeal therefrom to the district court of appeal, as in other cases of appeal thereto from the superior court. During the pendency of proceedings on appeal. and until final determination thereof, the person declared elected by the superior court shall be entitled to the office in like manner as if no appeal had been taken.

8576. Whenever an election is annulled or set aside by the judgment of the superior court, and no appeal has been taken within ten days thereafter, the commission, if any has issued, is void and the office vacant.

CHAPTER 3. CONTESTING PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

Article 1. General Provisions

8600. Any candidate at a primary election may contest the right of another candidate to nomination to the same office by filing an affidavit alleging any of the following grounds, that:

- (a) The defendant is not eligible to the office in dispute.
- (b) The defendant has committed any offense against the elective franchise defined in Chapter 3, Division VII and Chapter 3, Division XIV of this code.
- (c) A sufficient number of votes were illegal, fraudulent, forged, or otherwise improper, and that had such votes not been counted, the defendant would not have received as many votes as the contestant.
- (d) Due to mistake, error or misconduct the votes in any precinct were so incorrectly counted as to change the result.

8601. The defendant shall be named in the affidavit.

8602. The affidavit shall specify separately each precinct in which any irregularity or improper conduct took place, or in which a recount is demanded, and the nature of the mistake, error, misconduct, or other cause of contest.

8603. The affidavit shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction, within five days after the completion of the official canvass by the board of supervisors of the county last making the declaration.

8604. Irregularity or improper conduct shall annul or set aside a nomination only if it appears that illegal votes in the precinct have been given to the defendant, which if taken from him, would reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of votes given to the contestant.

8605. The provisions relating to costs in contested final elections apply herein.

Article 2. Procedure on Contests Other Than Contests Involving a Simple Recount.

8620. This article applies only to contests on the grounds that:

- (a) The defendant is not eligible to the office in dispute.
- (b) The defendant has committed any offense against the elective franchise as defined in Chapter 8, Division VII, and Chapter 3, Division XIV, of this code.
- (c) A sufficient number of votes were illegal, fraudulent, forged, or otherwise improper, and that had such votes not been counted the defendant would not have received as many votes as the contestant.

8621. If the nomination contested is for an office including a political subdivision of more than one county, the superior court of any county within the political subdivision has jurisdiction, and the contestant may file in any county within the political subdivision. There shall be no change of venue therefrom to any other county within the political subdivision.

8622. After the affidavit is filed with the clerk of the superior court, a copy of the affidavit shall be personally served upon the defendant or sent to him by registered mail in a sealed envelope with postage prepaid, addressed to the defendant at the place of residence named in his affidavit of registration. The contestant shall make an affidavit of mailing if he serves the affidavit by mail, and file it on the same day with the county clerk.

8623. The defendant, after receipt of the copy of the affidavit, may file an answer and a cross-contest affidavit within five days.

8624. No special appearance, demurrer or objection can be taken, other than by the affidavits which are to be considered a general appearance in the contest.

8625. The county clerk shall, within twelve days from the time the first affidavit is filed, present all the affidavits to the presiding judge of the superior court. The judge shall forthwith by a proper order, designate a time not more than five days from the time the county clerk presents the affidavits when, the place where, and before what judge the contest shall be tried.

8626. The county clerk shall, after an order setting a contest for trial, issue a citation to both parties containing a copy of the order. He shall deliver it to the sheriff who shall serve it either upon the parties, or leave it at the residences of the parties named in the affidavits of registration of such parties.

8627. The court shall meet at the time and place designated in the order setting the contest for trial, and shall have all powers necessary to determine the issues.

8628. After the court has heard the proofs and allegations of the parties it shall file its findings of fact and conclusions of law and immediately pronounce judgment either confirming the nomination or setting it aside and decreeing contestant nominated.

8629. Either party to a contest may appeal to the District Court of Appeal of the district where the contest is brought, if the appeal is perfected by the appellant within ten days after judgment of the superior court is pronounced. The appeal shall have precedence over all other appeals and shall be acted upon by the District Court of Appeal within ten days after the appeal is filed.

Article 3. Procedure on Contests Involving a Simple Recount.

8640. This article applies only to contests on the ground that due to mistake, error, or misconduct the votes in any precinct were so incorrectly counted as to change the result.

8641. The superior court of that county in which is located the precinct, of the vote of which the contestant demands a recount, has jurisdiction.

8642. No service other than as herein provided need be made upon the defendant. Upon the filing of the affidavit the county clerk shall forthwith post in a conspicuous place in his office, a copy of the affidavit. Upon the filing of the affidavit and its posting, the superior court of the county shall have jurisdiction of the subject matter and of the parties to the contest. The contestant on the date of filing the affidavit, shall send by registered mail a copy thereof to the defendant in a sealed envelope, with postage prepaid, addressed to the defendant at the place of residence named in the affidavit of registration of that defendant, and shall make and file an affidavit of mailing with the county clerk to become a part of the records of the contest.

8643. All candidates at any primary election are permitted to be candidates under this code, only upon the condition that jurisdiction for the purposes of the proceeding authorized by this article shall exist in the manner and under the conditions provided for by section 8642.

8644. At any time within three days after the filing of the affidavit of the contestant to the effect that he has sent by registered mail a copy of the affidavit to the defendant, the defendant may file with the county clerk an affidavit in his own behalf, setting up his desire to have the votes counted in any precincts, designating them, in addition to the precincts designated in the affidavit of the contestant, and setting up his grounds therefor. On the trial of the contest all of the precincts named in the affidavits of the contestant and the defendant shall be considered, and a recount had with reference to all of those precincts. The contestant shall have the same right to answer the affidavit of the defendant as is given to the defendant herein with reference to the affidavit of the contestant except that the contestant's answer shall be filed not later than the first day of the trial of the contest.

8645. On the eighth day after the completion of the official canvass the county clerk shall present the affidavits of the contestant and the defendant and proof of posting of contestant's affidavit to the presiding judge of the superior court, or any one acting in his stead, which judge shall forthwith designate the time and place of hearing. In counties where there is more than one superior judge, the presiding judge shall assign all the cases to one department. The assignment shall fix a time and place for hearing, which time shall not be less than one nor more than three days from the presentation of the matter to the court by the county clerk.

8646. The defendant shall appear, either in person or by attorney, at the time and place fixed for hearing, and take notice of the order fixing the time and place from the records of the court, without service.

8647. The defendant may not make any special appearance for any purpose except as herein provided. Any appearance whatever of the defendant or any request of the court by the defendant or his attorney, shall be entered as a general appearance in the contest.

No demurrer or objection can be taken by the parties in any other manner than by answer, and all the objections shall be contained in the answer.

8648. The court, if the defendant appears, shall require the answer to be made within three days from the time and place set for hearing. If the defendant does not appear the court shall note his default, and shall proceed to hear and determine the contest with all convenient speed.

8649. If the number of votes which are sought to be recounted, or the number of contests are such that the judge in a county in which there is but one superior court judge, is of opinion that it will require additional judges to enable the contest or contests to be determined in time to print the ballots for the election, he may obtain the service of any other superior judge, and the proceedings shall be the same as provided for counties where there is more than one superior court judge.

8650. If the proceeding is in a county where there is more than one superior court judge, the judge to whom the case is assigned, shall notify the presiding judge forthwith, of the number of judges which he deems necessary to participate, in order to finish the contest in time to print the ballots for the final election. The presiding judge shall forthwith designate as many judges as are necessary to completion of the contest, by order in writing and thereupon all of the judges so designated shall participate in the recount of the ballots and the giving of judgment in the contest in the manner specified in this article.

8651. The judges designated by the order to hear the contest, including the judge to whom the contest was originally assigned, shall convene upon notice from the judge to whom the contest was originally assigned, and agree upon the precincts which each one of them will recount, sitting separately. Thereupon the recount shall so proceed that each judge sitting separately, shall respectively determine the recount in those precincts which have been assigned to him, so that the ballots opened before one judge need not be opened before another judge or department.

8652. The proceedings before every judge in making a recount of the precincts assigned to him, as to the appointment of the clerk and persons necessary to be assistants of the court in making it, shall be the same as in contested elections. The judge shall fix the pay or compensation for those assistants and require the payment each day in advance, of the amount thereof by the person who is proceeding with and requiring the recount of the precinct being recounted.

8653. When the recount has been completed in the manner required in this article, all the judges who took part, if more than one, shall assemble and make the decision of court. If there is any difference of opinion, a majority of the judges shall finally determine all questions, and give a separate decision or judgment in each contest.

8654. The judgment of the court is final in every respect. No party may appeal.

8655. The judgment shall be served upon the county clerk or registrar of voters by delivery of a certified copy thereof, and may be enforced summarily in the manner provided in section 2900.

8656. If the contest proceeds in more than one county, and the nominee is to be certified by the Secretary of State from the compilation of election returns in his office, then the judgment in each county in which there has been a contest shall show what, if any changes in the returns in the office of the Secretary of State relating to that county, ought to be made. These judgements shall be served upon the Secretary of State, by the delivery of a certified copy. He shall make such changes in the record in his office as each judgment requires, and conform his compilation and his certificate of nomination in accordance therewith.

CHAPTER 4. TIE VOTES.

Article 1. Elections other than Primary Elections.

8700. This article does not apply to any primary election.

8701. If at any election, except that for Governor or Lieutenant Governor, two or more persons receive an equal and the highest number of votes for an office to be voted for in more than one county, the Secretary of State shall forthwith summon the candidates who have received the tie votes to appear before him at his office at the State capitol at a time to be designated by him. The Secretary of State shall at that time and place determine the tie by lot. In the same manner, at a time and place designated by it, the election board shall determine a tie vote for candidates voted for wholly within one county.

[ORIGINAL SECTION.]

8701. If at any election, except that for Governor or Lieutenant Governor, two or more persons receive an equal and the highest number of votes, there is no choice, and a special election to fill the office shall be ordered by the proper board or officer.

8702. In case any two or more persons have an equal and highest number of votes for either Governor or Lieutenant Governor, the Legislature shall, by a joint vote of both houses, choose one of the persons to fill the office.

Article 2. At Primary Elections.

8720. This article applies only to:

(a) Candidates for delegate to a national convention for the nomination of party candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

(b) Candidates for nomination at the direct primary to offices other than judicial, school, county, township, or municipal.

8721. In case of a tie vote for member of the State Board of Equalization, State Senator, Assemblyman, Representative in Congress or member of a county central committee, where the office is to be voted for wholly within one county, the election board shall forthwith summon the candidates who have received tie votes to appear before it, at a time and place to be designated by the board, and the board shall at that time and place determine the tie by lot.

8722. In the case of a tie vote for an office other than a judicial or school office to be voted on in more than one county, the Secretary of State shall forthwith summon the candidates who have received tie votes to appear before him at his office at the State Capitol at a time to be designated by him. The Secretary of State shall at that time and place determine the tie by lot.

8723. The summons mentioned in this article shall in every case be mailed to the address of the candidate as it appears upon his affidavit of registration. at least five days before the day fixed for the determination of the tie vote.

EXHIBIT C

1872 Code of Civil Procedure, Election Contest Special Proceedings

These are the Code of Civil Procedure sections related to election contest special proceedings, as amended through 1939, prior to the enactment of the 1939 Elections Code.

They were repealed, reorganized, and moved to Chapter 2 of Division 10 of the 1939 Code.

Below the CCP sections is Stats. Ch. 690, Sec. 28, from the act that created primary elections. This was repealed, reorganized, and moved to Chapter 3 of Division 10 of the 1939 Code.

TITLE II.

CONTESTING CERTAIN ELECTIONS.

§ 1111. Any elector of a county, city and county, city, or of any political subdivision of either, may contest the right of any person declared elected to an office to be exercised therein, for any of the following causes:

1. For malconduct on the part of the board of judges, or any member thereof.
2. When the person whose right to the office is contested was not, at the time of the election, eligible to such office.
3. When the person whose right is contested has given to any elector or inspector, judge, or clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or has offered any such bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Title IV, Part I, of the Penal Code.
4. On account of illegal votes.
5. On account of errors of the election board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, sufficient to change the result of the election as to such person.

(Amended by Stats. 1935, Ch. 406.)

§ 1112. Irregularity and improper conduct of judges, when to annul elections. No irregularity or improper conduct in the proceedings of the judges, or any of them, is such malconduct as avoids an election, unless the irregularity or improper conduct is such as to procure the person whose right to the office is contested to be declared elected when he had not received the highest number of legal votes.

§ 1113. When not to. When any election held for an office exercised in and for a county is contested on account of any malconduct on the part of the board of judges of any township election, or any member thereof, the election cannot be annulled and set aside upon any proof thereof, unless the rejection of the vote of such township, or townships, would change the result as to such office in the remaining vote of the county.

§ 1114. Illegal votes, when not to vitiate election. Nothing in the fourth ground of contest, specified in section eleven hundred and eleven, is to be so construed as to authorize an election to be set aside on account of illegal votes, unless it appear that a number of illegal votes has been given to the person whose right to the office is contested, which, if taken from him, would reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of votes given to some other person for the same office, after deducting therefrom the illegal votes which may be shown to have been given to such other person.

§ 1115. Proceedings on contested election. When an elector contests the right of any person declared elected to such office he must file with the county clerk a written statement setting forth specifically:

1. The name of the party contesting such election and that he is an elector of the district, county or township, as the case may be, in which such election was held.
2. The name of the person whose right to the office is contested.
3. The office.
4. The particular grounds of such contest.

Such statement must be verified by the contesting party as provided by section four hundred and fortysix of this code, and must be filed within thirty days after the declaration of the result of the election by the body canvassing the returns thereof, except in cases where the contest is brought on any of the grounds mentioned in subdivision three of section one thousand one hundred and eleven, when it must be brought within six months after the declaration of the result of the election by the body canvassing the returns thereof.

§ 1116. Statement of cause of contest in illegal voting. When the reception of illegal votes is alleged as a cause of contest, it is sufficient to state generally that in one or more specified voting precincts illegal votes were given to the person whose election is contested, which, if taken from him, will reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of legal votes given to some other person for the same office; but no testimony can be received of any illegal votes, unless the party contesting such election deliver to the opposite party, at least three days before such trial, a written list of the number of illegal votes, and by whom given, which he intends to prove on such trial; and no testimony can be received of any illegal votes except such as are specified in such list.

§ 1117. Statement of cause of contest. Want of form not to vitiate. No statement of the grounds of contest will be rejected, nor the proceedings dismissed by any court for want of form, if the grounds of contest are alleged with such certainty as will advise the defendant of the particular proceeding or cause for which such election is contested.

§ 1118. Special session of court to hear contest. Within five days after the end of the time allowed for filing such statements the county clerk must notify the superior court of the county or city and county of all statements filed. The court shall thereupon order a special session to be held, on some day to be named by it, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such order, at which session the ballots shall be opened and a recount taken, in the presence of all the parties, of the votes cast for the various candidates in all contests where it appears from the statements filed that a recount is necessary for the proper determination of such contest or contests. The court shall continue in special session to hear and determine all other issues arising in such contested elections and within ten days after the submission thereof, the court shall file its findings of fact and conclusions of law and immediately thereafter judgment thereon shall be entered.

§ 1119. Clerk to issue citation to respondent. The clerk shall thereupon issue a citation for the person, whose right to the office is contested, to appear at the time and place specified in the order, which citation must be delivered to the sheriff, and served either upon the party in person, or, if he cannot be found, by leaving a copy thereof at the house where he last resided, at least five days before the time so specified.

§ 1120. Witnesses; attendance of; how enforced. The clerk must issue subpoenas for witnesses at the request of either party, which must be served as other subpoenas; and the superior court shall have full power to issue attachments to compel the attendance of witnesses who have been subpoenaed to attend.

§ 1121. Power of court. Adjournment of court. The court must meet at the time and place designated, to determine such contested election, and shall have all the powers necessary to the determination thereof. It may adjourn from day to day until such trial is ended, and may also continue the trial, before its commencement, for any time not exceeding twenty days, for good cause shown by either party upon affidavit, at the costs of the party applying for such continuance.

§ 1122. Rules to govern court in trial of contest. The court must be governed, in the trial and determination of such contested election, by the rules of law and evidence governing the determination of questions of law and fact, so far as the same may be applicable; and may dismiss the proceedings if the statement of the cause or causes of the contest is insufficient, or for want of prosecution. After hearing the proofs and allegations of the parties, the court must pronounce judgment in the premises, either confirming or annulling and setting aside such election.

§ 1123. Certificate of election, to whom must be issued. If in any such case it appears that another person than the one returned has the highest number of legal votes, the court must declare such person elected. The person declared by the superior court shall be entitled to a certificate of election; and, if a certificate has not already been issued to him, the county clerk must immediately make out and deliver to such person a certificate of election signed by him, and authenticated with the seal of the superior court. If the clerk has issued any certificate for the same office to any other person than the one declared elected by the court, such certificate shall be annulled by the judgment.

§ 1124. When canvassing board declares no election, who may contest. Whenever the body canvassing the returns of any such election declares that no person has received the highest number of votes given for that particular office, any elector of the county, city and county, city, or political subdivision of either, in which such office is to be exercised, may, within twenty days after such declaration, contest the same by filing with the county clerk a written statement, setting forth specifically the matters stated in subdivisions one, three, and four of section eleven hundred and fifteen, and also the names of the persons shown by such declaration to have received an equal number of votes; which statement must be verified as provided in said section eleven hundred and fifteen. A citation must thereupon be issued for and served upon the persons so declared to have received an equal number of votes, as provided in section eleven hundred and nineteen, unless one of such persons is the contestant, in which case the citation need not be issued for or served upon him. Thereupon like proceedings must be had as are provided in this title for contesting the right of a person declared elected; and all the provisions of this title, so far as applicable thereto, must govern in such proceedings.

§ 1125. Costs. If the proceedings are dismissed for insufficiency, or for want of prosecution, or the election is by the court confirmed, judgment must be rendered against the party contesting such election, for costs, in favor of the party whose election was contested; but if the election is annulled or set aside, judgment for costs must be rendered against the party whose election was contested, in favor of the party contesting the same; provided, that where two or more contested elections are joined for the purpose of recounting votes as in this title provided, the costs shall be apportioned among the parties in the discretion of the court. Primarily each party is liable for the costs created by himself, to the officers and witnesses entitled thereto, which may be collected in the same manner as similar costs are collected in other cases.

§ 1126. Appeal. Either party aggrieved by the judgment of the court may, within thirty days after notice of the entry thereof, appeal therefrom to the supreme court, as in other cases of appeal thereto from the superior court.

§ 1127. When election void and office vacant. Whenever an election is annulled, or set aside by the judgment of the superior court, and no appeal has been taken within ten days thereafter, the commission, if any has issued, is void, and the office vacant.

Stats 1913, Ch, 690, SEC. 28. Any candidate at a primary election, desiring to contest a nomination of another candidate for the same office, may, within five days after the completion of the official canvass, file an affidavit in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he desires to contest the vote returned from any precinct or precincts in such county, and thereupon have a recount of the ballots cast in any such precinct or precincts, in accordance with the provisions of this section. Such affidavit must specify separately each precinct in which a recount is demanded, and the nature of the mistake, error, misconduct, or other cause why it is claimed that the returns from such precinct do not correctly state the vote as cast in such precinct, for the contestant and the contestee. The contestee must be made a party respondent, and so named in the affidavit. No personal service or other service than as herein provided need be made upon the contestee. Upon the filing of such affidavit the county clerk shall forthwith post in a conspicuous place in his office, upon a bulletin board to be prepared for that purpose, and to have upon it in conspicuous letters the words "Notice of Primary Election Contests" a copy of the affidavit. Upon the filing of such affidavit and the posting of the same, the superior court of the county shall have jurisdiction of the subject matter and of the parties to such contest, and all candidates at any such primary election are permitted to be candidates under this act, upon the condition that such jurisdiction for the purposes of the proceeding authorized by this section shall exist in the manner and under the conditions provided for by this section. The contestant on the date of copy filing such affidavit, must mail a copy thereof to the contestee in a sealed envelope, with postage prepaid, addressed to the contestee at the place of residence named in the affidavit of registration of such contestee, and shall make an affidavit of such mailing and file the same with the county clerk to become a part of the records of the contest. Within two days after the expiration of the time for filing such affidavits. the county clerk shall present all such affidavits and proof of posting as aforesaid to the judge of the superior court of the county, or any judge acting in his place, or the presiding judge of the superior court of a county or city and county, or any one acting in his stead, which judge shall, upon such presentation, forthwith designate the time and place where such contest shall proceed, and in counties or cities and counties where there are more than one superior judge, assign all the cases to one department by the order of such court. Such order must so assign such case or cases, and fix such time and place for hearing, which time must not be less than one nor more than three days from the presentation of the matter to the court by the county clerk, as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the contestee to appear either in person or by attorney, at the time and place so fixed, and to take notice of the order fixing such time and place from the records of the court, without service. No special appearance of the contestee for any purpose shall be permitted, and any appearance whatever of the contestee or any request of the court by the contestee or his attorney, shall be entered as a general appearance in the contest. No demurrer or objection can be taken by the contestee in any other manner than by answer, and all the objections of the contestee must be contained in his answer in the contest. The court if the contestee shall appear, must require the answer to be made within three days from the time and place as above provided, and if the contestee shall not appear shall note his default, and shall proceed with all convenient speed. If the number of votes which are sought to be recounted, or the number of contests are such that the judge shall be of opinion that it will require additional judges to enable the contest or contests to be determined in time to print the ballots for the election, if there be only one judge for such county, he may obtain the service of any other superior judge, and the proceedings shall be the same as herein provided in counties where there is more than one superior court judge. If the proceeding is in a county or city and county where there is more than one superior court judge, the judge to whom the case or cases shall be assigned, shall notify the presiding judge forthwith, of the number of judges which he deems necessary to participate, in order to finish the contest or contests in time to print the ballots for the primary election, and the said presiding judge shall forthwith designate as many judges as are necessary to such completion of such contest, by order in writing, and thereupon all of the judges so designated shall participate in the recount of such ballots and the giving of judgment in such contest or contests in the manner herein specified. The said judges so designated by said last mentioned order, including the judge to whom said contests were originally assigned, shall convene upon notice from the judge to whom such contest or contests were originally assigned, and agree upon the precincts which each one of such judges will recount, sitting separately, and thereupon such recount shall proceed before each such judge sitting separately, as to the precincts so arranged, in such manner that the recount shall be made in such precincts before each such judge as to all the contests pending, so that the ballots opened before one judge need not be opened before another judge or department, and the proceedings before such judge in making such recount as to the appointment of the clerk and persons necessary to be assistants of the court in making the same, shall be the same as in contested elections, and the judge shall fix the pay or compensation for such persons and require the payment each day in advance, of the amount thereof by the person who is proceeding with and requiring the recount. When the recount shall have been completed in the manner herein required, if more than one judge has taken part therein, all the judges who took part shall assemble and make the decision of court, and if there be any differences of opinion, a majority of such judges shall finally determine all such questions, and give the decision or judgment of the court in such contest or contests, separately. Such decision or judgment of the court shall be final in every respect, and no appeal can be had therefrom. The judgment shall be served upon the county clerk or registrar of voters by delivery of a certified copy thereof, and may be enforced summarily in the manner provided in section 27 of this act, and if the contest proceeds in more than one county, and the nominee is to be certified by the secretary of state from the compilation of election returns in his office, then the judgment in each county shall show what, if any changes in the returns in the office of the secretary of state relating to such county or city and county, ought to be made, and all such judgments shall be served upon the secretary of state, by the delivery of a certified copy, and he shall make such changes in the record in his office as such judgment or judgments require, and conform his compilation and his certificate of nomination in accordance therewith.

EXHIBIT D

Local Measure Ballot Statements Since AB-195

Since AB-195 changed ELEC 13119, local governing bodies have placed 1,574 measures on the ballot. The following list of ballot statements excludes recall questions, in which the ballot statement is governed by a separate statute, and advisory questions, where the ballot statement is not governed by any statute.

The list of ballot statement transcripts are substantially exactly what appeared on the ballots. Not shown are the additions to the ballot made by registrars in violation of ELEC 13109. Although great care has been taken to attain accuracy, the list may contain a few scrivener errors. Some of those actually appeared on the ballot; some be errors in the transcription. TGhe list has been compiled from reliable public sources, primarily county registrar web sites and public record requests, supplemented with listings from the California Election Data Archive (CEDA) at California State University at Sacramento, ballotpedia.org, and votersedge.org.
