BIOGRAPHY

Partner Stan Barrett is a member of the Corporate Transactions & Business Law practice group.

Mr. Barrett offers sophisticated and strategic legal solutions to clients engaged in complex commercial disputes, including class action securities litigation and securities-related matters affecting closely held companies, fiduciary duty matters and investigations, complex contract matters, merger and acquisitions litigation, and bankruptcy litigation. Mr. Barrett has also led numerous internal investigations and represented U.S. and international institutional clients in white collar defense matters before the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Department of Justice, the Board of the Federal Reserve, and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Before joining Scarinci Hollenbeck, Mr. Barrett honed his legal skills with an AMLAW top-ten firm in New York City, where he worked for nearly ten years. His extensive litigation experience and academic background afford him a unique perspective on complex legal issues and how best to convey his clients' positions in order to achieve optimal results on his clients' behalf.

Since joining Scarinci Hollenbeck, in addition to representing companies and individuals in commercial disputes, Mr. Barrett has broadened his practice to encompass trademark disputes. Mr. Barrett has also developed a robust telecommunications regulatory practice, where he routinely represents cable television and other telecommunications companies in state regulatory matters.

Mr. Barrett received his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in Philadelphia, PA. Mr. Barrett earned a Ph.D and M.A. in English Language & Literature from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan and received his undergraduate degree, cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania where he also majored in English.
