BIOGRAPHY

Ashley Brinn Levy is a member of Scarinci Hollenbeck's Land Use, Real Estate, and Regulatory practice groups. She represents and advises sophisticated clients, including Fortune 500 companies, from a broad range of industry groups. Ashley has extensive experience representing and appearing before municipal planning and zoning boards and obtaining approvals for commercial developers and homeowners. She represents buyers, sellers and developers in a wide array of real estate and land use matters. Ashley also handles commercial litigation in connection with real estate and land use disputes, among other matters. In this capacity, she regularly interfaces with regulatory agencies in various jurisdictions.

Prior to joining Scarinci Hollenbeck, Ashley was associated with a prominent national law firm where she focused her practice on Corporate Law with a special emphasis on the gaming and e-sports industries. She represented and advised large, multinational publicly-traded casino corporations, gaming equipment companies, and Internet gaming service providers and operators, as well as regional entities and individuals in licensing, regulatory, governance, and compliance matters. She successfully guided clients in navigating the gaming regulatory waters in domestic and international jurisdictions.

Ashley earned her Juris Doctor from Rutgers School of Law. Upon receiving her Juris Doctor, she served as a judicial law clerk for the Hon. Michael A. Donio, Presiding Judge of the Atlantic County Criminal Courts Complex.

Ashley earned her undergraduate degree, cum laude, from Bryn Mawr College in Bryn Mawr, PA where she majored in French and French studies. She is fluent in French and proficient in Spanish. In 2019, Ashley was elected and currently serves as a Board Member on the Board of Directors of the French American Chamber of Commerce.
