BIOGRAPHY

Dianna Santiago is a member of Scarinci Hollenbeck's public & education law practice groups. She primarily focuses her practice on the representation of public sector and municipal clients in various labor & employment and litigation matters. Additionally, Ms. Santiago collaborates with other attorneys to represent public employers in disciplinary hearings, grievance arbitrations, and labor negotiations.

Ms. Santiago, during the summer of 2019, joined Scarinci Hollenbeck as a summer law clerk. Prior to joining the firm as an associate in 2021, Ms. Santiago served as a legal extern on behalf of the Passaic County Prosecutor's Office in Paterson, NJ. She also served as a legal intern as part of the Seton Hall Law Center for Social Justice's Criminal Justice Clinic, where she directly represented clients charged with misdemeanor offenses in the Essex County Special Remand Court. Ms. Santiago earned her Juris Doctor from Seton Hall University School of Law in 2020 and earned a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice, cum laude, from Rutgers University – Newark in 2016.
