TREND REPORT

A new season is here with a slew of new beauty movements. Here's what you need to know to give your beauty bag a spring makeover.

MAGIC WANDS

For inky lashes that'll last through the day, try pushing Gucci's buildable mascara to its limits. Apply one coat for glossy, lifted and defined lashes or keep going with small strokes at the lash line and along bottom lashes to build volume and open eyes. It's a perfectly customisable formula that lets you personalise your preferred mascara look, from classic to bold and everything in between.

Gucci Mascara L'Obscur, $59.

FRESH FORMULAS FIND THEIR WAY

While dewy make-up is a match made in heaven for dry skin, getting that subtle glow just right can be a balancing act. For dreamy skin that won't leave you looking like a disco ball come 3pm, try Burberry or YSL's light-medium coverage gel formula foundations to even out imperfections while letting skin breathe and freckles peek through.

× Burberry Fresh Glow Gel Stick, $75.

YSL NEW Le Cushion Encre de Peau, $107.

FULL BLOOM

With their gentle, sweet and creamy notes, white florals will always be timeless and nostalgic – but don't think you need to wear the whole bouquet. Balancing single florals with delicate woody notes, Gucci's tuberose and sandalwood combination offers brighter, understated nods to the classics.

THE BEST GETS BETTER

Estée Lauder's iconic skin-repairing super serum, Advanced Night Repair, has been a beauty staple in cabinets all over the world since it launched in 1982. The much-beloved formula now features faster repair and new youth-generating power, which makes its skin-boosting prowess faster, better, stronger. Expect firmer, plumped, bouncier, more radiant skin. Whether you use it morning or night, apply it before moisturiser at either end of the day.

Estée Lauder NEW Advanced Night Repair Serum 50ml, $159.

Billie Jean wears Ella Baché Daily Hydration Mist 100ml, $39. Giorgio Armani Luminous Silk Foundation in 9, $100. Tom Ford Cheek Colour in Love Lust, $90. Givenchy Le 9 De Givenchy Multi-Finish Eyeshadow Palette in Le 9.05, $110. Diorshow All-Day Brow Ink in 011, $44, and Rouge Dior Ultra Care Liquid in 639 Wonder, $56.

IN A GOOD LIGHT

Perfect contouring by doubling down on glow-making shades and finishes. For luminosity that smooths over skin's texture troubles, reach for superfine illuminating powders that diffuse into skin like a cream. To add a peachy blush and sun-kissed bronze, dip into M-A-C's tri-tone palette – or Guerlain's super-fine and flattering bronzer.

M-A-C Hyper Real Glow Palette, $79.

× Guerlain Terracotta Light in 00, $84.

HEALING HANDS

Diligent hand hygiene doesn't have to leave your skin dry, just reach for skincare-driven sanitisers. Grown Alchemist's vegan and organic hyaluronic acid-based gel cleanses and hydrates, while antioxidants protect skin from irritation. To keep hands soft between washes, follow by massaging this delicately fragranced orange peel hand cream into skin and cuticles.

× Grown Alchemist Healthy Hands Kit, $55.

THE ART OF DOING LESS

A full face of perfectly polished make-up doesn't feel right for the times, particularly if you're still spending your nine-to-five on Zoom calls. Hold back on the heavily contoured cheekbones and focus energy where it counts: on brows. Brushed upwards, they give a lift to the face and pop the cheekbones. Shu Uemura's eyebrow mascara allows for precision. The tinted gel formula of Guerlain's Mad Eyes brow framer gives natural oomph to brows, plus skincare benefits.

× Shu Uemura Kushi Brow, $46.

× Guerlain NEW Mad Eyes Gel Eyebrow Pen, $65.

ALL NIGHT LONG

Switch out 10-step regimens and rich creams for a mask that helps skin regenerate through the night. Applied as a weekly treatment or to pamper at home, Lancôme's innovative mask is infused with 24-carat gold and Grand Rose Extracts from its iconic Absolué Soft Cream to improve skin regeneration and give a younger-looking appearance, all in a good night's work.

Lancôme Absolué Golden Cream Mask Five-Pack, $198.

SMART SKIN CARE

With a couple of quick, firm strokes, Hunter Lab's gua sha-inspired tool instantly de-puffs tired eyes, defines cheekbones and shifts any unwelcome chins, while microcurrent technology stimulates facial muscles to keep skin lifted, perky and plump over time.

Hunter Lab NEW Aura Facial Sculpting Tool, $298.

SCENTS GO INTENSE

The weather is warming up and so can your scent. The 'intense' version of your favourite eau is a stronger concentration of juice, meaning it lasts longer on skin. The original of YSL's bold Libre fragrance, a study in sexiness-in-a-bottle, has been turned up to eleven in this assertive combination of lavender, orange blossom and orchid. It leaves behind a trail of compliments.

YSL Beauty NEW Libre Intense Eau de Parfum 50ml, $190.

AIR IN THE HAIR

As days become warmer and our routines lazier, it's time to embrace low-maintenance hair. Make the most of hair's natural texture, volume and shine with a few lightweight necessities, like a pump of R+Co's multipurpose elixir to nourish dry ends and keep flyaways under control. To add soft body and airy texture to fine strands, rake a handful of Sachajuan's Hair Mousse through dry hair, or zhush with Oribe's Dry Texturizing Spray to add texture without compromising movement.

× R+Co Centerpiece All-in-One Hair Elixir, $46.

♡ Sachajuan Hair Mousse 200ml, $50.

× Oribe Dry Texturizing Spray 300ml, $68.

SAY 'HI' TO HYDRATION

If skin's neglected, tight or a little dull, hit refresh with a dose of hydration. Clinique's gel-cream moisturiser with hyaluronic acid and aloe vera hydrates and plumps skin, topping up the moisture barrier and replenishing lipids for soothed, supple skin around the clock (three times over).

Clinique Moisture Surge 72H Lipid-Replenishing Hydrator 75ml, $85.

WELLNESS TAKES OVER

The four minutes spent brushing your teeth might not be the most entertaining part of your day but that doesn't mean it can't be luxurious. Extending the wellness makeover that the rest of your beauty regimen is currently getting to other parts of your self-care routine, Marvis pairs fluoride and xylitol to make toothpaste with a light, sweet freshness that's hard to resist.

× Marvis Aquatic Mint Toothpaste, $13.95.

THE GOOD ACID

Hyaluronic acid has been a potent ingredient in skin care for years but in 2020 the super hydrator is upping the ante. It plays the lead in Elizabeth Arden's new Hyaluronic Acid Ceramide Capsules – an extension of the brand's single-dose capsule collection of potent actives. The formula, packed with skin-strengthening ceramides, hydrates while working to plump, firm and dial up dewiness.

Elizabeth Arden NEW Hyaluronic Acid Ceramide Capsules 60 pieces, $150.

SUN CARE GETS REALLY GOOD

No one knows effective sun care like the Australian brands dominating the scene. Our vast experience with exactly what kind of damage the sun does has paved the way for brilliant formulas. Ella Baché's latest sun care superstar – Sportsbloc Great SPF50+ – is water resistant for four hours, with skin-nourishing ingredients like lanolin and cocoa butter, and feels light on the skin.

TRUST YOUR GUT

In a skin funk? If topical solutions aren't doing their part, try turning your quest for clearer and calmer skin inwards. Get an unbalanced gut back in check with an antioxidant- and Vitamin C-rich supplement. KORA Organics' blueberry, noni extract and matcha powder calms inflammation and boosts energy while prebiotics support a healthy gut microbiome to keep skin glowing.

♡ KORA Organics Noni Glow Skinfood with Prebiotics Dietary Supplement Powder 180g, $80.

PRIMER PLUS

If you're expecting your primer to just prep for make-up, then you need to up the game. The latest innovations work smarter, not harder. Estée Lauder has a lightweight formula that doesn't add yet another creamy layer. If you're a little dry, La Mer The Perfecting Primer's Miracle Broth™ and rose algae smooth and soften skin, making a perfect canvas for your complexion products.

Estée Lauder NEW Futurist Aqua Brilliance Watery Glow Primer, $68.

La Mer NEW The Perfecting Primer, $150.

NEXT-GEN FOUNDATIONS

Base products are lifting their game and the best new foundations are packed with skincare benefits. Their effects will leave you glowing.

Forget what you think you know about foundation. The new wave of bases have clever, refined formulas with ingredients that will improve the texture, tone and appearance of your skin.

While rosehip extract has been used in Dior Forever formulations for years, this liquid foundation takes hydration a step further, with the inclusion of pansy, known for its antioxidant and anti-inflammatory properties. The water-oil emulsion leaves skin so comfortable it's as if you're not wearing anything at all. Hydrating foundations tend to leave skin dewy, but this one has a velvety finish that all skin types will love.

1. Dior Forever Skin Glow Foundation 30ml, $89. Shade range: 29

A skincare/make-up hybrid that dry, combination and mature complexions will love, the bi-phase formulation feels silky. A little goes a long way, instantly smoothing out skin texture and adding a youthful dew to skin.

2. Bobbi Brown Intensive Skin Serum Foundation 30ml, $98. Shade range: 14

Powder foundations don't usually scream radiance but this creamy, lightweight formula transcends the ordinary. Infused with a lime tea concentrate to fight environmental aggressors and soft sea ferment for water retention, it goes the extra mile. The dual-side textured sponge gives you control of coverage.

3. La Mer NEW The Soft Moisture Powder Foundation, $180. Shade range: 10

This feather-light foundation is similar to a tinted moisturiser. It protects skin from environmental stresses such as pollution, UV rays, even light emissions from digital screens. The addition of licorice aids suppleness while hyaluronic acid helps the skin maintain moisture levels. Coverage is on the sheer side, but you can build it up.

4. Givenchy Teint Couture City Balm 30ml, $76. Shade range: 12

CUSTOMISE THE COVERAGE Luminous formulas are perfect for building up (or keeping lean) coverage. Look to glow-making fluids such as Tom Ford Traceless Perfecting Foundation, $130, or × Shu Uemura NEW Unlimited Glow Foundation 35ml, $80.

“Modern foundations are bridging the gap between make-up and skin care, which makes sense and is a great development,” says make-up artist Filomena Natoli. “Healthy skin is paramount to achieving flawless make-up, so having bases on the market with that in mind is a step towards skin Nirvana.”

BONUS GIFT

Purchase a new Neo Nude Foundation and enjoy a complimentary nude cosmetics pouch*

TIP: "When shopping for new foundation, let the colour dry on the skin before judging whether it's a match," says Duane Caddy, National Educator for Armani Beauty.

NEXT-LEVEL GLOW

The house behind beloved foundation Giorgio Armani Luminous Silk, which reportedly sells one bottle every 30 seconds, has released a new foundation. Neo Nude has serious glow, intense hydration and boasts no-make-up-make-up perfection. The dewy formula includes skin-loving ingredients like hyaluronic acid and glycerin that deliver all-day hydration and comfort, while pure pigments allow for light, buildable coverage. It's available in 24 shades, so finding a perfect fit is easy.

Giorgio Armani NEW Neo Nude Foundation 35ml, $68. Shade range: 24

Want to set your dewy foundation for lasting hold? "I only ever powder the areas you don't want to look shiny, like the T-Zone," explains make-up artist Molly Warkentin. "If left dewy it can read more like sweat."

PENS AT THE READY

For the perfect finishing touch, a concealer that doubles as a skin treatment is a fine choice. This one, featuring La Prairie's famed caviar extract known for firming properties, is housed in a pen so you can smooth away puffiness and cool the area.

A brush sits neatly within for the most precise finish.

× La Prairie Skin Caviar Perfect Concealer, $260.

THE RIGHT TOOL FOR THE RIGHT JOB

When it comes to making the most of your base, it's all about the blend. "My particular favourite is a blending brush with dense, shortish bristles, preferably synthetic as they don't absorb too much product," says Natoli.

"A blending brush allows you to really buff product into the skin evenly without any visible brush strokes."

MILLIE WEARS La Mer Crème de la Mer 60ml, $470. ✕ Shu Uemura Unlimited Foundation in 463, $80. ✕ Barberrry Fresh Glow Highlighter in No. 2 Nude Gold, $94. La Mer The Lip Volumizer, $120. M.A.C Art Library Palette in Flame-Boyant, $89.
