HOW TO CREATE YOUR OWN CAREER DEVELOPMENT PATH YEAR-BY-YEAR

FRESHMEN

- Be a sponge! Learn as much as you can.
- Go to events, exhibits, screenings (virtual for now, IRL later).
- Join clubs.
- Make good friends.
- Explore the city.
- Go to class, listen, and learn.
- Do good work.
- Build your skill set.
- Check out all Career Development events (attend one per semester).
- Attend one Welcome to Career Development Info Session.

SOPHOMORES

- Keep being a sponge, going to stuff, and learning a lot!
- Attend one career development event each semester.
- If you haven't yet done so, attend one Welcome to Career Development Info Session.
- Start to think about and build strong pieces for your portfolio.
- Start to learn about cool places to intern.
- Create a resume and cover letter using our Resume & Cover Letter Guide.
- Check out our online Resources for internship listings, professional organizations, and more.
- Consider taking your first internship in the summer following sophomore year.
- Join SVA Portfolios to showcase some of your stronger work in spring or summer.

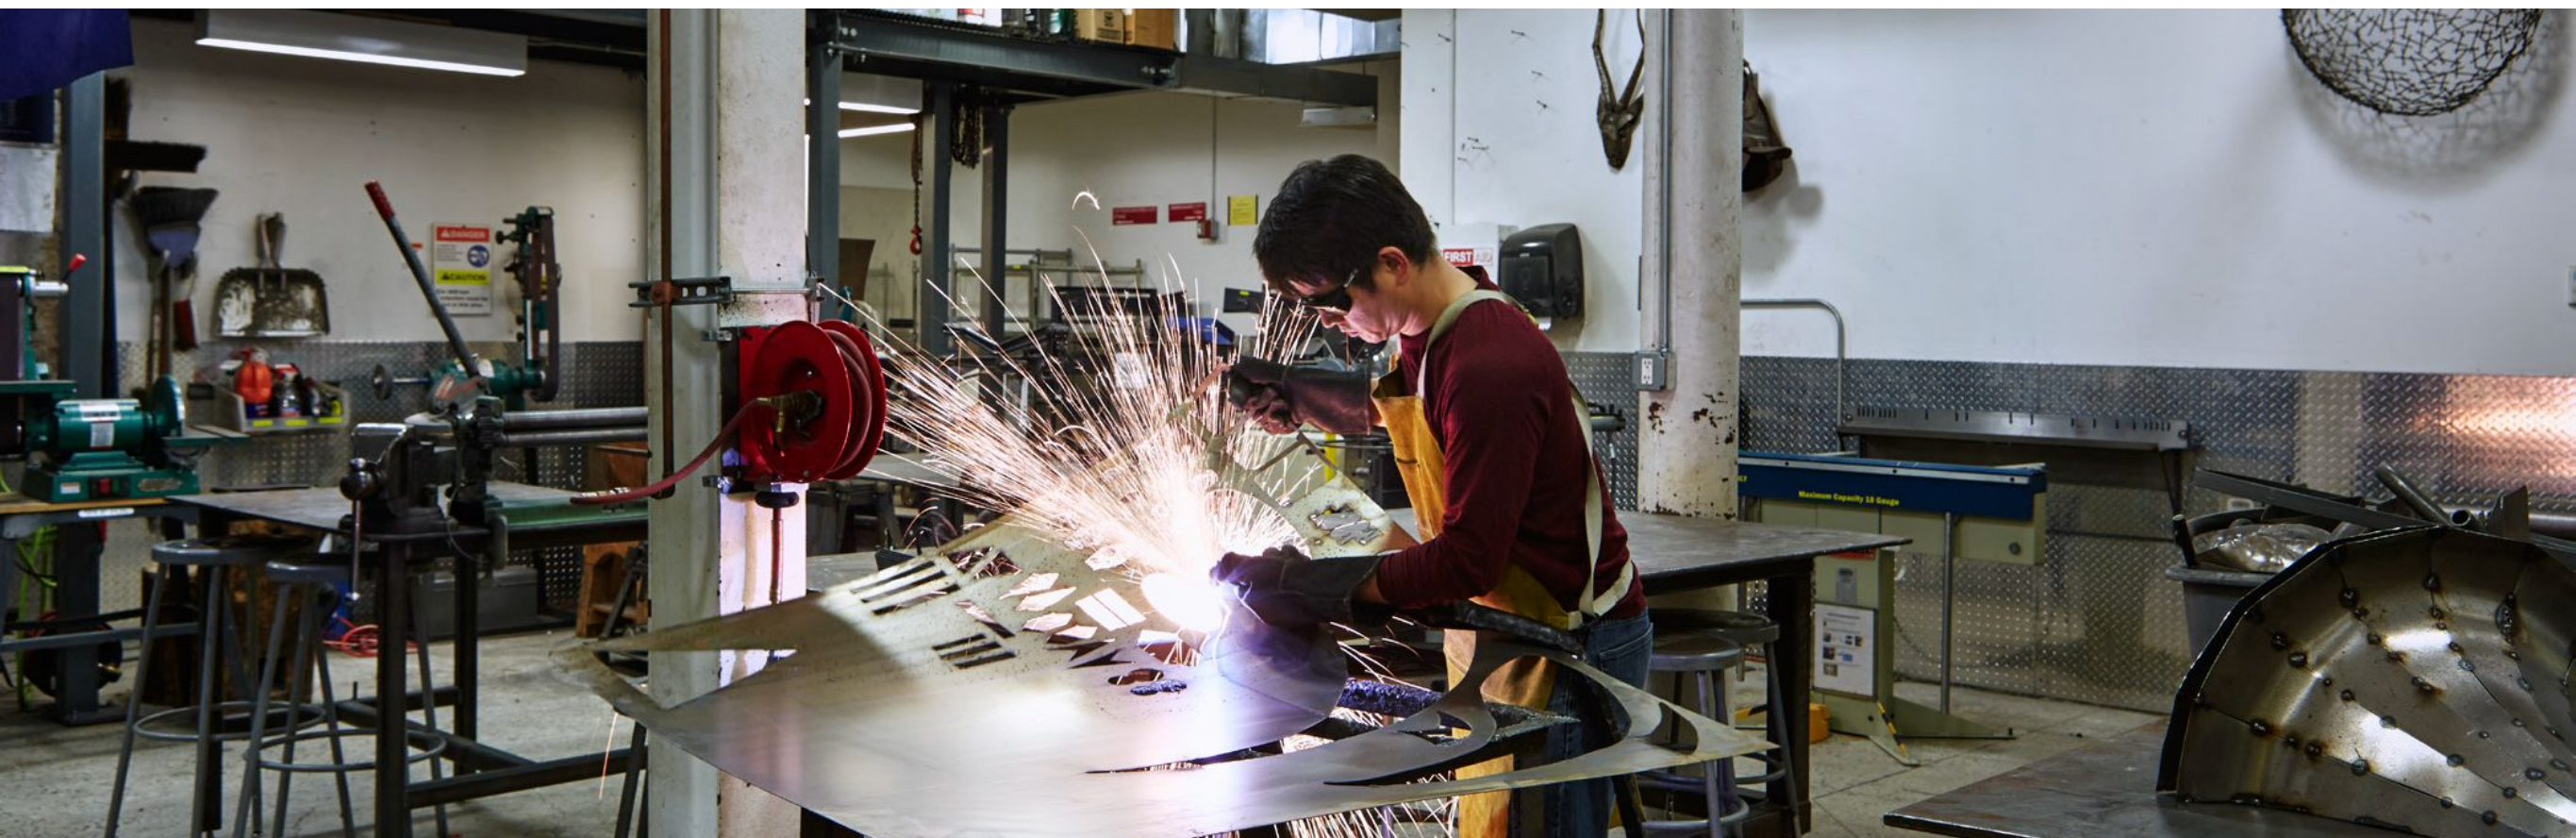

JUNIORS

- Refine your resume and a cover letter.
- Attend any of our workshops and events relevant to you.
- Schedule a one-on-one career counseling appointment with us.
- Talk to your peers and upperclassmen about their positive internship experiences.
- Investigate and apply to internships during junior year or in the following summer.
- Apply for portfolio reviews hosted by our department.
- Keep being a sponge!

SENIORS & GRADUATE STUDENTS

- Attend any of our workshops and events relevant to you.
- Meet with a career counselor.
- Seek internships that will provide the most opportunity for learning and networking.
- Apply for portfolio reviews hosted by our department.
- Join professional organizations for a student rate.
- Ask 2-4 instructors to serve as professional reference for you upon graduation.
- Focus on your thesis and portfolio.
- Keep being a sponge!

ALUMNI SERVICES

- Showcase your work on SVA Portfolios
- Professional workshops, alumni mixers, and networking events (virtual and IRL)
- Individual career counseling for 4 years after graduation
- Access to SVA Job Board
- Model drawing sessions during the fall and spring semesters
- 20% tuition discount on SVA Continuing Education classes
- Subscription to Visual Arts Journal and alumni newsletter
